Super subs give Venezuela win over Ecuador, Mexico edge Jamaica

AFP, SANTA CLARA: Goals from substitutes Jhonder Cadiz and Eduard Bello gave Venezuela a 2-1 win over 10-man Ecuador in their Copa America Group B match on Saturday.

In the group's other game, Mexico made a winning start to their campaign with a 1-0 victory over Jamaica in Houston but lost their captain Edson Alvarez to injury.

Ecuador were forced to play with 10 men from the 22nd minute of the game at Levi Stadium when striker Enner Valencia was sent off for dangerous play.

COPA AMERICA

The 34-year-old forward struck the chest of Venezuela defender Jose Martinez with his boot while challenging for a high, bouncing ball in the box and was initially awarded a yellow card but after a VAR review he was shown a straight red.

Ecuador, which had been in control of the game before the dismissal, responded well and went ahead in the 40th minute when Venezuela failed to clear a free-kick into the box and Jeremy Sarmiento pounced on the loose ball to drill home.

Venezuela head coach Fernando Batista made two changes at the break, bringing on Cadiz and Bello and both were to make a decisive impact.

Then, in the 74th minute, Alexander Gonzalez

Parish Youth Nuvem defender Niclso Colaco was at his best, while St Anthony SC striker Louise Noronha gave his best for his team. In the 9th minute, PY Nuvem had the first glance at the rival goal but striker Louise's power-packed shot missed the target by a whisker.

PY Nuvem striker Jonas Colaco shot from a close range but St Anthony SC goalkeeper Allwyn Faria was equal to the task. A sudden and foxy move by St Anthony SC turned the match with long ranger of Moses landing into the PY Nuvem net in the 20th minute.

Later, Alvito Dias of PY Nuvem equalised after sending a well-measured ball to Shenoy Colaco, who rose high and headed the ball into St Anthony SC net in the 46th minute.

Then in a counterattack, Valentine Carvalho doubled the lead for St Anthony in the 51st minute.

As the match coming to the final quarter, Sunny

Fernandes of St Anthony SC after dribbling past PY Nuvem defenders shot from a close range but the PY Nuvem goalkeeper denied it. Later, PY Nuvem's Jonas equalised 2-2 in the 56th minute. In the resultant tie-breaker, St Anthony SC proved to be the better shooters.
