LADY PSI THREATENED, TOUCHED HER PISTOL & USED RUDE LANGUAGE: ADV ASHISH PRABHU'S COMPLAINT

» Aug 28: Lady PSI Anoushka Parab and 4-5 police constables visited senior advocate Jayant Prabhu's house after 10 pm, in search of his elder son Pritesh Prabhu

» Family members informed her that Pritesh was undergoing treatment at

IPHB, Bambolim

» PSI Parab carried a pistol and purportedly used rude language with family members

» Jayant Prabhu was left tense and depressed due to the incident abatement to suicide.

The decision to file the FIR

comes after mounting pressure from the legal fraternity,

who were deeply disturbed by the advocate's death.

According to the suicide note left by Prabhu, he blamed LSPi Parab for his decision to end his life, citing her rude behaviour during an investigation she was conducting. The investigation was related to a sexual harassment case filed by a female advocate against Prabhu's elder son Pritesh, who is also an advocate.

Cabbies protest in Colva, demand arrest of video creator

Team Herald

MARGAO: A massive protest erupted outside the Colva police station on Friday afternoon as taxi operators from across Goa demanded action against an individual accused of making false allegations against the taxi driver community.

The controversy arose from a viral video created by Parag Raikar, a private taxi aggregator service operator, who accused local taxi drivers of malpractices.

The cabbies were at the police station from 2 pm to 11 pm, and left only after police filed an FIR against Raikar for defamatory remarks and inciting tension.
