voice concern over mega housing project, fear impact on village demographics

Team Herald

QUEPEM: The residents of Xeldem, Quepem have raised concern over a proposed mega housing project in the village on Friday, fearing that it may lead to an influx of migrant workers, potentially altering the village's demographic and social fabric.

The project is reportedly set to be developed on the property of the now defunct Atlantic Spinning and Weaving Mills, which had been inoperative for more than a decade. The Xeldem panchayat secretary faced criticism for failing to inform the Quepem Deputy Collector about the mill's sealing orders but assured the villagers that the necessary documents would be submitted following the meeting. After meeting the Quepem deputy collector and sub-divisional magistrate Manohar Karekar, social

Naik later filed a police complaint. The Verna

police have registered it as a non-cognisance offence and are conducting investigations. In another case, Shantanu Singh, senior manager at Parmesh Constructions Company Ltd lodged a complaint against three persons for obstructing company's Thursday in the presence of Cortalim MLA Anton Vas and former Sancoale sarpanch and garbage The accused identified as Salim Bagwale also in the past was a garbage contractor and was blacklisted by the panchayat. However, he was now working at the MRF site.

On Thursday an alterlegedly manhandled him. the BNS Act.

> know how the land was transferred to the institution when it belonged to Comunidade and devasthan. The deputy collector told them to first concentrate to stop the ongoing work and to stop the theft of material from the property, Desai said, alleging scam in the transfer of land and missing of mutation number.

Former sarpanch John Travasso said that the company premises has been auctioned, while destruction was going due to reckless felling of trees. In 1987, the Atlantic Spinning and Weaving Mills bought the earlier textile unit belonging to the Chowgule and Company Pvt Ltd and started its commercial operations from 1988.

It is also learnt that the Xeldem village panchayat has started process to recover pending house tax dues of Rs 7 lakh from the former promoters of Atlantic Spinning and Weaving Mills.
