Govt, CII and GIM collaborate for 'Goa Centre of Excellence on Logistics'

To sign 'Letter of Intent' at the 10th CII Goa Logistics Conference on Wednesday

Team Herald

PANJIM: The State government is set to sign a 'Letter of Intent' with the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and the Goa Institute of Management (GIM) for the establishment of the 'Goa Centre of Excellence (CoE) on Logistics.' This agreement will be formalized during the 10th edition of the "CII Goa Logistics Conference" on Wednesday, September 25. This significant event aims to advance Goa's logistics sector, a key pillar of the State's economic growth strategy. The conference will serve as a platform to attract new investments in the logistics sector, bringing together potential investors, industry leaders, and policymakers to discuss innovative opportunities and strategies for growth.

The CoE will play a crucial role in implementing the recently launched Logistics Policy, driving
