Rahul gets bail PTI. PUNE: A special court in Pune on Friday granted bail to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi in a defamation case related to his alleged objectionable remarks on Hindutva ideologue V D Savarkar. The MP/MLA court granted bail to the Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha on a surety bond of Rs 25,000 after he appeared before it through video conferencing, his lawyer said. Senior Congress leader

Mohan Joshi stood as surety for Gandhi (54) before the court presided over by Amol Shinde, judicial magistrate (first class) and special judge for MP/MLA cases.

Advocate Milind Pawar, representing Gandhi, said soon after his client appeared before the court, they moved a bail application. The judge allowed the plea and granted bail to the former Congress president on a surety bond of Rs

As per the complaint, Gandhi, while speaking at the London event, stated that Savarkar had written in a book that he and five to six of his friends once beat up a Muslim man and he (Savarkar) felt happy.

According to the complaint, the freedom fighter had not written this anywhere and the Congress leader's remarks were aimed at defaming him.

At the time, the court had asked the Pune police to investigate the allegations and file a report. The Vishrambaug police. after an inquiry, submitted that there was prima facie truth in the complaint.

Gandhi had skipped the previous court appearance on December 2 citing the winter session of Parliament which he was attending.

His lawyer Pawar had then assured that the opposition parliamentarian will appear in the court on January 10.
