Protesting opposition MPs suspended as panel on Waqf Bill readies to adopt its report

PTI, NEW DELHI: Ten opposition members attending the joint committee of Parliament meeting on the Waqf (Amendment) Bill were suspended on Friday as they accused its chairperson of reducing its proceedings to a "farce", while the committee readies to adopt its draft report next week.

The appearance of Mirwaiz Umar Farooq, a moderate Hurriyat leader who is also the religious head of Muslims in Kashmir, before the panel to voice his disapproval of the proposed law was the highlight of the meeting but not before opposition members' noisy protests drowned its proceedings till their suspension.

Opposition MPs alleged that Jagdambika Pal, the committee's chairman, was steamrolling the agenda at the government's behest with an eye on the February 5 Delhi polls.

They later wrote to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla to ask Pal to postpone the January 27 meeting and consult other members on the next date and agenda.

Pal accused opposition members, especially the Trinamool Congress' Kalyan Banerjee, of hurling abuses and insults at him in their bid to scuttle the proceedings. They broke all boundaries, he said.

The suspension was for Friday and opposition MPs can attend the next meeting.

The January 27 meeting is set to consider the Bill clause by clause before finalising the report.

Opposition MPs have sought

A delegation led by Mirwaiz Umar Farooq, the religious head of Kashmir, at Parliament Annexe, in New Delhi, on Friday more time to allow them to frame their views after studying the views of stakeholders.

These members, including Banerjee, DMK's A Raja, Congress' Naseer Hussain, and BJP MPs traded allegations, with the former insisting that they protested in a civilised manner after not getting a response from Pal.

BJP MP Aparajita Sarangi termed the conduct of Banerjee, often the most vocal opposition member, as "disgusting" and said opposition members created a ruckus as part of a design to sabotage the meeting.

Banerjee said Pal informed them on January 21, when the committee members were in Lucknow meeting stakeholders, that the next meetings would be held on January 24-25. Raja wrote on behalf of opposition MPs, requesting the chairman to schedule the meeting after January 30 or 31 but in vain.

He said the agenda of Friday's meeting was of the abrogation of Article 370 and instant triple talaq. Pal added that he adjourned the meeting twice so as to restore order and was forced to suspend them on a motion moved by BJP member Nishikant Dubey due to their "ruckus".

CBI busts Rs 350 cr crypto ponzi scam

PTI, NEW DELHI: The CBI conducted searches across seven states in a Rs 350-crore crypto scam which robbed hundreds of investors of their hard earned money, officials said Friday. The action follows an FIR registered by the CBI against seven individuals who were allegedly running their ponzi schemes separately in seven states, they said.
