

Police, hospital tried to destroy evidence, CM can't disown responsibility: RG Kar victim's parents

PTI, KOLKATA: The parents of the R G Kar hospital victim have said that

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee cannot disown the responsibility for the alleged attempt of the police and hospital authorities to destroy evidence of rape and murder of their daughter.

They attempted to shield the main conspirators behind the crime, while the CBI failed to bring to book all the perpetrators and overlooked the larger conspiracy aspect, the parents claimed.

The ruling Trinamool Congress has termed the allegations unfortunate. "Everyone - Kolkata Police, the hospital administration and people's representatives from the TMC - played an active role to hush up the gha-

CBI URGES EARLY HEARING OF APPEAL ON RG KAR CONVICT'S SENTENCE; CAL HC TO TAKE UP MATTER ON JAN 27

PTI, KOLKATA: The CBI on Friday urged the Calcutta High Court to schedule an early hearing on its appeal seeking death penalty for R G Kar Hospital rape-murder case convict Sanjay Roy. The investigating agency moved the court after the trial court rejected its demand earlier for death penalty to Roy, who was found guilty of the rape and murder of an on-duty doctor at R G Medical College and Hospital on August 9, 2024. A division bench presided by Justice Debangsu Basak, before which the matter was mentioned by deputy solicitor general (DSG) Rajdeep Majumdar seeking an early hearing of the CBI's plea, said it will hear the appeal on January 27 along with a prayer by the West Bengal government over admission of its appeal with a similar plea.

ly incident so that truth does not come to light, the deceased medic's mother told a Bengali TV channel on Friday.

The body of the 31-year-old post-graduate trainee was found in a semi-naked state in the seminar hall of RG Kar Medical College and Hospital on August 9 last year. The trial court on January 20 sentenced Sanjay Roy, the lone convict, to life imprisonment till death in the rape-murder case.

"The CM cannot disown the failure of the Kolkata Police, hospital and the administration, the mother of the deceased said.

The chief minister also holds the police and health portfolios.

The CM has to explain why the crime scene could not be sealed and the evidence was tampered with by the entry of a large number of onlookers. She has to explain why from the footage of 68 people moving in the area on August 9 morning till midday, only one person Sanjay Roy was identified as the sole perpetrator of the crime? her mother said.

She claimed while the CBI did not act on the issue of alleged suppression of facts, the state administration failed to protect a woman medic at her workplace, and later tried to hide the larger conspiracy aspect of the crime.

"These matters were not properly addressed by CBI despite our testimony to the agency," the victim's father added, accusing both CBI and the Kolkata Police of holding a shoddy investigation "to shield some people." TMC spokesperson Kunal Ghosh dubbed the charges as unfortunate.
