BJP, RSS are 'traitors', beware of them: Kharge

PTI, MHOW (MP): The BJP and RSS are "traitors" and people should be wary of them, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge said on Monday, claiming they talk about not looking for "shivlings under mosques" but instigate people to do so.

Addressing the "Jai Babu, Jai Bhim, Jai Samvidhan" rally here, the Congress president said independence was achieved fighting under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi, and today those who keep abusing the Congress -- "the people of the RSS" -- only worked for the British.

"They had no participation, no part in the freedom struggle. Will you forgive such people?" Kharge asked the large gathering at the rally held in this Madhya Pradesh town where Ambedkar was born.

"If you want to teach a lesson to these people, unite, and protect the rights you have got by uniting. If you don't do this, the loss is yours, the loss is not of Rahul Gandhi, Sonia Gandhi or the big people sitting on the stage. The loss is of the Dalit, backward, tribal and the poor," Kharge said, asking the crowd to think in this direction or they will not get any right.

Kharge also took a swipe

at the Modi government and said it was standing on "two legs" - BJP allies led by Chandrababu Naidu and Nitish Kumar -- and a simple push can topple it.

He urged people to not heed the theory of M S Golwalkar, V D Savarkar or K B Hedgewar and move forward with the ideology of Babasaheb Ambedkar, Jawaharlal Nehru and Mahatma Gandhi.

"And I want to tell you one more thing that these people of the BJP are openly insulting every community. Stop it, whatever happened has happened. The court also said but everyone together is instigating a few people today. The RSS people also said that don't look for 'Shivling under mosques', they themselves stated this, but they themselves instigate," Kharge said.

"On one hand they speak, on the other hand they instigate. So that is why we have to live in peace. If anybody does injustice (to anybody), you should have the strength to fight against that injustice, but the BJP-RSS is taking advantage of this, instigating people and trying their best to remove rights, the fundamental rights we have in the Constitution," he said.

"I heard from somewhere that the BJP people have started the work of making another Constitution. Today I want to tell you that establishing equality of people in the society was one of the aims of Babasaheb and that is why he made many laws. If anyone gave him complete support, it was Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and Mahatma Gandhi," Kharge said.

He said if people are united the BJP will never succeed in changing the Constitution. He urged the Dalit, backward and the tribal to unite, saying until they are united, they will not get entry into temples.

During the Mhow rally, Kharge also took a swipe at Home Minister Amit Shah's remarks in Rajya Sabha that had created a furore during the Winter Session.

"Abhi ek fashion ho gaya hai -- Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar. Itna naam agar bhagwan ka lete to saat janam tak swarg mil jata (It has become a fashion these days to say Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar, Ambedkar. If they had taken God's name so many times, they would have got a place in heaven)," Shah had said in a jibe at the opposition.

Saif attack case: Mumbai Police team grills woman in Bengal

PTI, KOLKATA: A police team from Mumbai on Monday questioned a woman in West Bengal's Nadia district in connection with the attack on Bollywood superstar Saif Ali Khan, a source said.

Investigation revealed that the SIM used by the Bangladeshi national, who was arrested earlier in Mumbai for the attack, was registered in the name of the woman, he said.

The woman, however, claimed that she had lost a mobile phone with the said SIM a few years back, he said.

A two-member team of Mumbai Police arrived in West Bengal on Sunday.

A senior police officer initially stated that the woman was arrested. He, however, later said that none was captured from West Bengal in this connection.

"The team of police officers from Mumbai interrogated the woman in Chapra in Nadia district in the Saif Ali attack case. The woman denied knowing the officer of the West Bengal Police told PTI.

"The woman claimed that she had lost her mobile phone when she was in Kolkata a few years back. Investigators are trying to find out how the accused got the SIM registered under the woman's name and started using it," he said.

Snakebites across country, do something: SC asks Centre to take States on board

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Monday observed the issue of snakebites was prevalent "throughout the country" and asked the Centre to take all States on board to "do something" in making available snakebite treatment in medical facilities.

A bench of Justices B R Gavai and S V N Bhatti was hearing a plea that said the country faced a significant public health crisis due to the scarcity of anti-venom, crucial in treating snakebites.

"You can take the states on board. The problem is throughout the country," the bench told the Centre's counsel.

It went on, "You can have a meeting with all the representatives of the states and try to do something. It is not an adversarial litigation." The Centre's counsel said the government would place on record its steps taken on the issue.
