MAPUSA: Sesa Football Academy registered a hard-fought 1-0 win over Calangute Association in the Goa Professional League (GPL) match played at Duler Stadium, here, on Thursday.

The all-important goal for the winners came in the additional time of the first session through Myran Pereira's header, from a slip off by Calangute Association's goalkeeper Aditya Sharma.

GOA PRO LEAGUE

Both the teams having won their last GPL match with Sesa FA drubbing Panjim Footballers and Calangute Association getting the better of Churchill Brothers came strongly into today's match with a promise to return home with a win.

However, nothing much transcribed with just one close attempt at the goal from Sesa FA's Muhammed Faheez header missing the target narrowly.

chances at the start of the second session Pandurang Gauns and Richard Cardoz, which did bring some teeth in their attack.

In the 48th minute, Calangute Association lost a glorious chance to level terms. Samuel D'Souza sent an acute angle pass to substitute Pandurang only to find the latter fumble in front of the goal.

At the other end, Calangute Association's custodian Aditya brought two outstanding saves to deny skipper Shridharnath Gawas and Beckham Singh from scoring.

Match was mostly then restricted to midfield which came to life in the last quarter of the match when Calangute Association's Pandurang drilled a fierce grounder from top of the penalty box which was blocked by Sesa FA's custodian Roanal Gaunkar for a corner.

In the stoppage time Sesa FA's Chaitan Dabholkar getting hold of a ball from the midfield covered some ground and latched a wisp 25-yard shot which went inches over the crossbar.

Mbappé 'tricks' as Real dump Man City out; PSG, Dortmund in last 16

AP, LONDON: Kylian Mbappé scored a hat-trick, Erling Haaland stayed on the bench injured and Real Madrid dumped Manchester City out of the Champions League on Wednesday.

Mbappé's stellar trio of goals in the fourth, 33rd and 61st minutes in a 3-1 win gave Madrid a 6-3 victory on aggregate over the 2023 champion in their two-leg knockout playoff.

"This has been the complete performance — attack, defense, with the ball and without the ball, we showed such high levels of quality," Madrid coach Carlo Ancelotti said. "Almost the perfect night."

One superstar striker was watched by another from the sidelines. Haaland was not fit to start for an ultimately overmatched Man City because of a knee injury sustained late in a Premier League game Saturday.

Paris Saint-Germain beat French rival Brest 7-0, to run up a 10-0 aggregate score, and will play either Liverpool or Barcelona in the round of 16.

PSV Eindhoven ousted Juventus in the only one of the eight playoffs this week that went to extra time. Defender Ryan Flamingo scored in the 98th minute for a 3-1 win on the night and 4-3 on aggregate.

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE RESULTS

Knockout phase play-offs, second leg: Borussia Dortmund 0 Sporting Lisbon 0. Dortmund win 3-0 on aggregate. PSV Eindhoven 3 (Perisic 53, Saibari 74, Flamingo 98) Juventus 1 (Weah 63). After extra time, PSV Eindhoven win 4-3 on aggregate. Paris Saint-Germain 7 (Barcola 20, Kvaratskhelia 39, Vitinha 59, Doue 64, Nuno Mendes 69, Ramos 76, Mayulu 86) Brest 0. PSG win 10-0 on aggregate. Real Madrid 3 (Mbappe 4, 33, 61) Manchester City 1 (Gonzalez 90+2). Real Madrid win 6-3 on aggregate.

TEAMS QUALIFIED

Qualified automatically: Liverpool, Barcelona, Arsenal, Inter Milan, Atletico Madrid, Bayer Leverkusen, Lille, Aston Villa.

Qualified via knockout phase play-offs: Borussia Dortmund, Real Madrid, Bayern Munich, PSV Eindhoven, Paris Saint-Germain, Benfica, Feyenoord, Club Brugge. Last 16 draw takes place on Friday

United States international Timothy Weah scored for Juventus. In the early game, Borussia Dortmund started with a 3-0 lead at home to Sporting Lisbon and was barely stretched in a 0-0 draw. Sporting's Champions League campaign imploded after coach Ruben Amorim left for Manchester

United in November.

Real Madrid, PSG, Dortmund and PSV join Bayern Munich, Benfica, Club Brugge and Feyenoord, which all advanced on Tuesday, as playoff round winners who will be unseeded teams in Friday's draw. They will host the first-leg games on March 4-5.

The top eight in the 36-team standings three weeks ago - Liverpool, Barcelona, Arsenal, Inter Milan, Atletico Madrid, Bayer Leverkusen, Lille, Aston Villa - skipped the play-offs round and are seeded in the round of 16 draw. They host second legs on March 11-12.

The round of 16 is in a new, tennis-like seeded bracket for the knockout stage in the expanded competition format. Madrid, as the 11th-place team in the standings and No. 11 seed already knew its next opponent would be Atletico or Leverkusen, who respectively placed fifth and sixth. Top-seeded Liverpool will play No. 15 PSG or No. 16 Benfica.

Liverpool title charge dented

AFP, BIRMINGHAM: Liverpool's Premier League title charge was slowed by Aston Villa after a pulsating 2-2 draw on Wednesday left neither side satisfied.

Arne Slot's men open up an eight-point lead at the top of the table over second-placed Arsenal, but the Gunners now have a game in hand over the Reds. Liverpool led through Mohamed Salah but were also forced to come from behind after Youri Tielemans and Ollie Watkins swung momentum in Villa's favour.

Trent Alexander-Arnold's deflected shot secured a point for the visitors, but it should have been more as substitute Darwin Nunez missed a glorious chance to snatch victory.

Liverpool are now 22 Premier League games unbeaten, but after conceding at the death against local rivals Everton, a second 2-2 draw in eight days offers Arsenal hope in the title race. Slot's men also face a tough trip to Manchester City on Sunday.

LAHORE: England recalled wicketkeeper-batsman Jamie Smith on Thursday for their Champions Trophy opening game against Australia in Lahore. Jofra Archer, Brydon Carse and Mark Wood were named as the team's seam attack. Former World Cup winners England have never won the Champions Trophy. They are placed in Group B along with Australia, Afghanistan and South Africa. Pakistan, India, New Zealand and Bangladesh are in Group A. The top two sides from each group will qualify for the semi-finals. England team to face Australia on Saturday: Phil Salt, Ben Duckett, Jamie Smith, Joe Root, Harry Brook, Jos Buttler (captain), Liam Livingstone, Jofra Archer, Brydon Carse, Adil Rashid, Mark Wood.

Pakistan fined for slow over-rate in New Zealand defeat

KARACHI: The International Cricket Council on Thursday fined Pakistan five per cent of their players' match fee for a slow over-rate in the Champions Trophy defeat to New Zealand in Karachi. "Pakistan have been fined five per cent of their match fee for maintaining a slow over-rate against New Zealand," said an ICC statement. Andy Pycroft of the ICC Elite Panel of Match Referees imposed the sanction after Mohammad Rizwan's side was ruled to be one over short of the target after time allowances were taken into consideration. Rizwan pleaded guilty to the offence and accepted the proposed sanction, so there was no need for a formal hearing, the ICC said. "On-field umpires Richard Kettleborough and Sharfuddinoula, third umpire Joel Wilson and fourth umpire Alex Wharf levelled the charge," the ICC added. Pakistan now face arch rivals India in Dubai in a must win game on Sunday to keep their semi-final hopes alive from Group A.

Andreeva, 17, stuns Swiatek to reach Dubai semi-finals with landmark win

DUBAI: Teenager Mirra Andreeva stunned second seed Iga Swiatek to become the youngest woman to reach the semi-finals of the Dubai Championships on Thursday, attributing victory to working on her "anger inside". The 17-year-old Russian came from a break down in the second set to win 6-3, 6-3 in one hour and 36 minutes and continue the cull of the leading seeds in Dubai. The 14th-ranked Andreeva, who reached the semi-finals at the French Open last year, is the youngest player to record five Top 10 wins since Nicole Pietrangeli in 2007. Swiatek joined third seed Coco Gauff, who exited in her opening match, world No.1 Aryna Sabalenka, fourth-seeded defending champion Jasmine Paolini and fifth seed Jessica Pegula to be knocked out. Andreeva will next face sixth seed Elena Rybakina after the former Wimbledon champion claimed a 6-2, 7-6 (7/4) victory over Sofia Kenin of the United States. Clara Tauson, the 38th-ranked Dane who knocked out Sabalenka in the last 16, also advanced to the semi-finals by beating Czech Linda Noskova, Pegula's conqueror, 7-6 (7/4), 6-4. Tauson will be playing in her first WTA 1000 semi-final where she will face either Karolina Muchova or Sorana Cirstea.

Alcaraz dumped out by Lehecka in Qatar Open quarters

DOHA: Carlos Alcaraz crashed out of the Qatar Open in the quarter-finals on Thursday after losing to Jiri Lehecka, the Spaniard heading for the exit along with second seed Alex de Minaur. The top seed dropped the first set before recovering to level, and then led by a break in the decider, but world number 25 Lehecka won the final four games for a 6-3, 3-6, 6-4 victory. Alcaraz entered the clash on a seven-match winning streak following his triumph in Rotterdam earlier this month but ran into trouble against a confident Lehecka, who won his second career title in Brisbane to start the year. The 23-year-old Czech will play British eighth seed Jack Draper or Italy's Matteo Berrettini on Friday for a place in the final. Lehecka is through to the last four in Doha for the second time. Berrettini, a former world number six and Wimbledon runner-up, knocked out Novak Djokovic in the second round. Andrey Rublev converted his eighth match point against De Minaur to take his place in the semi-finals. The Russian, a Qatar winner in 2020, had to dig deep to down the Australian 6-1, 3-6, 7-6 (10/8).
