

Kerala Blasters out of play-offs after draw

Kerala Blasters FC goalkeeper Nora Fernandes punches the ball to safety during the Indian Super League match against Jamshedpur FC at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, Kochi, on Saturday

AGENCIES, KOCHI: Jamshedpur FC came from behind to earn a point in a 1-1 draw against Kerala Blasters FC in the Indian Super League match played at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, here, on Saturday.

ISL Korou Singh scored a brilliant goal to put the home side ahead in the first half before Milos Drincic's own goal brought Jamshedpur FC back into the game in the second half.

With this draw, Kerala Blasters FC are out of the playoffs contention for this season as they can only reach a maximum of 31 points, which is a point less than the sixth-placed North-East United FC (32), with still two matches in hand.

Both the teams started slowly and gradually became more assured in possession as the match progressed. Given that it was a must-win game for the Kerala Blasters FC, they showed more urgency than their counterparts, who had already qualified for the play-offs.

Kerala Blasters will host Mumbai City FC next in Kochi on March 7, whereas Jamshedpur FC will return home to welcome Odisha FC in the next match on March 5.

RESULT
Kerala Blasters FC 1 (Korou Singh 35')
Jamshedpur FC 1 (Milos Drincic OG 86')

PANJIM: Twenty-nine-year-old Goan boxer Pralhad Panda made history by winning the Indian Boxing Council's (IBC) West Zone championship title, knocking out his Hyderabad-based opponent DN Sai Havish in the first round of the featherweight category of Susegado Strike Fight Night 2.0, Goa's first-ever major boxing event held at the International Centre, Goa, at Dona Paula, recently.

Two other Goan boxers, Kailas Gauns and Umesh Chavan, also registered victories during Goa's biggest ever boxing showdown, Susegado Strike Fight Night 2.0, that featured 16 boxers across India and Afghanistan, including four Indian women boxers fighting for honours in the boxing ring.

Panda went on the offensive and wasted no time in going for the win, managing to secure a comprehensive knockout, in the face of an opponent with better reach and height advantage. It took one minute and six seconds to knock out teenager Havish, winning the prestigious Indian Boxing Council's (IBC) West Zone Championship title, becoming the first professional Goan boxer to win the accolade.

"This was my very first title fight. I used to dream about winning titles since I was a kid. This is a dream-come-true scenario for me. I have got the best coach in Goa, Pravin Shirodkar, who has been a main pillar for me," Panda said after winning the title.

Indian Boxing Council's Chief Operations Officer Vivek Raja was present among the other dignitaries. In the two other fights featuring victorious Goan boxers, Chimbil's Kailas Gauns (30), who professionally debuted in the maiden edition of Susegado Strike Fight Night last year, won unanimously after six rounds of intense action against 18-year-old Nishang Rimo from Arunachal Pradesh in the super flyweight category. Mapusa's Umesh Chavan (28) was declared a unanimous winner in the super featherweight category, despite being injured by his opponent Yumnam Santosh (29) from Manipur over six rounds. The international fighter participating in the event, 26-year-old Taher Khuram, knocked out his opponent, Manikandan R. (24) from Tamil Nadu, in the first round itself. Khuram, who has two career knockouts in three previous professional fights, took just two minutes and forty-nine seconds in the first round to down his opponent with a powerful punching blitz.

Haryana's Raj Sahiba (22), winner of last year's edition, defeated Lovely Kumari (22) from Punjab by unanimous decision in the super lightweight category. Madhya Pradesh's Kamla Roka (29) secured a technical knockout (TKO) against Kerala's Arundhati Nair (20) in just over a minute of the penultimate round. In the featherweight category, Mizoram's F. Zoramchhana (25) dominated Ayush Singh (20) from Chhattisgarh, winning by third-round TKO. Haryana's Sharwan Ranjeet Das (22) delivered a fifth-round knockout against Hyderabad's Mohammad Junaid (19) in the super flyweight category, sealing a decisive win.

"Susegado Strike Fight Night 2.0 was bigger in scale compared to its first edition. We are proud that Goa hosted its first IBC championship bout in the state, a fact that will help put Goa on the Indian boxing map," says Luigson Fernandes, founder of Susegado Strike.

"The success of Susegado Strike Fight Night 2.0 only fuels our drive to continue breaking new ground and creating more opportunities for fighters to advance in the sport," says Prathamesh Naik, another founder of Susegado Strike.

"Pralhad has been in the circuit for the last eight years. This is a beginning for him to aim for the India title," Vivek Raja said.
