MAN ARRESTED IN EMPLOYMENT SCAM IN MARGAO

MARGAO: The Margao police have arrested a man for allegedly impersonating a licensed contractor and deceiving a victim with false employment promises. The accused, identified as Shabrish Manjrekar from Borda-Margao, misrepresented himself to the victim and to Shyam Naik of Comba-Margao, by offering a caretaker's job with an attractive salary, food, and accommodation. Manjrekar allegedly took an advance payment of Rs 25,000 from the employer, Shyam Naik, but failed to pay the victim her salary, thereby cheating and exploiting her. The police have registered a case under sections 319(2), 143(1)(f), and 318 of the BNS 2023. PSI Subhash Gaonkar is currently investigating the case.

PONDA: Tension prevailed in Ward No. 11 of Shapur in the Bandora Panchayat on Thursday, as 22 huts were demolished following a civil court order, rendering the slum dwellers of the area homeless. A large posse of police was deployed at the demolition site to maintain law and order.

Heated arguments erupted between the two groups of slum dwellers after the demolition.

It may be recalled that a fortnight ago, while disposing of the petition, the Court had ordered the demolition of the illegal huts after the owner had approached the court.

However, following a request from Sarpanch Ramchandra Naik and former sarpanch Rajesh Naik to grant some time for slum dwellers to make alternative arrangements on humanitarian ground, the action was delayed by 15 days.

Fifteen days later, the dwellers to make alternative arrangements on humanitarian ground, the action was delayed by 15 days.

There are around 100 huts near Safa Masjid, which is a protected site. We are voters of the area as we possess election and Aadhaar cards. Now, nobody is bothered to help us in our difficult times - Slum dwellers demolition order was implemented on Thursday under police protection.

Following the demolition, slum dwellers while speaking to O'Heraldo, said they have been residing here for the past 30 to 40 years.

Aggrieved by the demolition of her hut, a septuagenarian, who felt she had lost everything, questioned the mediapersons as to why they were clicking photos of the people being rendered homeless.

She asked: "What are you trying to show? Who will help us? We have been residing here for the past 40 years."

The slum dwellers, whose huts were demolished, said, "There are around 100 huts near Safa Masjid, which is a protected site. We are voters of the area as we possess election and Aadhaar cards. Now, nobody is bothered to help us in our difficult times."

Some residents alleged that one of the former panch members let them down with false promises

It may be recalled that O'Heraldo had highlighted the plight of residents of these huts last year, who were living in unhygienic condition. The septuagenarian thanked O'Heraldo for visiting them last year and highlighting their plight.

Bus owners demand action against asst MV inspectors over fake experience certificates

Team Herald

PANJIM: The All Goa Private Bus Owners Association (AGPBOA) served a notice to the State government demanding to complete ongoing disciplinary inquiry proceedings into the illegal recruitment of 36 Assistant Motor Vehicle Inspectors (AMVIs) for allegedly submitting fake experience certificates to the Department of Transport.

AGPBOA and RTI activist Sudip Tamankar demanded action/termination of these AMVIs from the government service within a period of 15 days from the receipt of the notice, failing which he will be compelled to initiate contempt of court proceedings in the High Court of Bombay at Goa.

Notices have been served on the Chief Secretary, Secretary (Transport) and the Director of Transport. Tamankar said that he had earlier issued notices to the department on four occasions with regard to the matter but till date no action has been taken against them. The issue has to be resolved now, since it was going from 2012, he said.

Tamankar said that due to ongoing inquiry, these 36 AMVIs are on probation since 2019 due to which promotions of another batch of seven AMVIs is delayed. Also 19 vacancies of MVIs have been created in the department but due to probation period and ongoing inquiry, promotions are held up.

According to Tamankar, in December 2010, the government advertised 14 posts of AMVIs but recruited 29 AMVIs in 2012 thereby violating Articles 14 and 16 (1) of the Constitution of India. Again another nine AMVIs were recruited and most of them submitted fake experience certificates. Following complaints by some individuals, services of two AMVIs were terminated by the government.

The Vigilance Department in its inquiry report had stated that FIR be registered against these 36 AMVIs for producing fake experience certificates.

Tamankar said that he filed a writ petition in the High Court in 2012 and the government sought time one-year to conduct departmental inquiry. Again in October 2014 he filed another petition, and the government sought six months' time to hold inquiry as per the CCS Conduct Rules and take action against them. Later the then Ponda deputy collector was appointed as the inquiry officer.

Governor releases second edition of Kunjikkali's Echoes of Liberation

Team Herald

PANJIM: Governor P S Sreedharan Pillai released the second edition of Kunjikkali's Echoes of Liberation at Durbar Hall, Raj Bhavan, on Thursday.

Originally translated from Malayalam, the novel tells the mystical story of Kunjikkali, a dignified Dalit woman who defied societal norms and embraced nature's four elements in the mythical land of Pookaithayoor. Through an intricate tapestry of love and hate, good and evil, the book delivers a deeply emotional and thought-provoking narrative.

Addressing the gathering at the book launch, Governor Pillai urged people to cherish village life, drawing inspiration from Mahatma Gandhi's ideals.

He noted that after India's independence, Mahatma Gandhi had wished to return to his village, believing in the intrinsic value of rural life.

"Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi used to say, 'India lives in its villages.' This phrase encapsulates Gandhi's core belief that the true essence and strength of India resided in its rural communities," the Governor said.

He also congratulated the author and the publisher for bringing to life a powerful story of a Dalit woman's journey.

Author Jayalekshmi, who embarked on her literary journey with this novel, introduced the translated edition of Kunjikkali's Echoes of Liberation to the distinguished guests.
