Nagpur violence: Key accused booked for sedition

Archaeological Survey of India puts tin sheets around Aurangzeb's tomb

PTI, NAGPUR/ BAREILLY/ KOLKATA: Police have booked Fahim Khan, key accused in the Nagpur violence, and five others on charges of sedition and spreading misinformation on social media, officials said on Thursday, adding that curfew was lifted or relaxed in parts of the city three days after the violence.

Maulana Shahabuddin Rasvi, a Bareilly sect cleric, wrote to Union home minister Amit Shah, seeking a ban on the film 'Chhava', alleging it was inciting communal tensions and was directly responsible for the Nagpur violence

Maulana Shahabuddin Rasvi, a Bareilly sect cleric, wrote to Union home minister Amit Shah, seeking a ban on the film 'Chhava', alleging it was inciting communal tensions and was directly responsible for the Nagpur violence.

Amid demand from right-wing organisations that Mughal Emperor Aurangzeb's tomb at Khultabad in Maharashtra's Sambhajinagar district be removed, the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) has put up tin sheets on two sides of the 18th century structure.

West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee condemned Monday's violence in Nagpur, asserting that India is known for unity in diversity.

The cyber crime department has asked for information from Facebook, X, Instagram and YouTube authorities about 230 profiles on their platforms and sought that they be blocked, DCP Cyber Crime Lohit Matani told reporters in Nagpur.

The probe so far has indicated that misinformation was spread initially after some videos were shared on social media, which fuelled the violence and more videos "glorified" the violence, he said.

Six persons, including Khan, who is Minority Democratic Party city chief, have been booked for sedition in the cyber police FIRs, Matani said.

Rumours about a 'chadar' with holy inscriptions being burnt during protests led by the Vishwa Hindu Parishad (VHP) seeking the removal of Aurangzeb's tomb was the trigger for the violence in Nagpur, an official said.

Mamata Banerjee told reporters in Kolkata that she condemns the Nagpur violence. "Our country is known for its unity in diversity. After the demolition of Babri Masjid, I hit the streets to protect communal harmony," she said.

Banerjee said her INDIA alliance partner Uddhav Thackeray, the president of Shiv Sena (UBT), will comment on the situation.

The Archeological Survey of India (ASI), as per the directive of the Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar district administration, has put up tin sheets on two sides of Aurangzeb's tomb at Khultabad, an official said.

The tin sheets and wire fencing were put up on two sides of the structure on Wednesday night, a local official said.

A circular fence will also be installed around the tomb, an official said.

"The green net covering two sides of the tomb was in bad shape, and the structure was visible to those visiting the nearby Khwaja Syed Zainuddin Chishti grave. So we have installed tin sheets," he told PTI.

K'taka ministers, MLAs allege 'honey trap' attempts

Home minister promises probe

PTI, BENGALURU: Lawmakers cutting across party lines on Thursday alleged that "honey trap" attempts were being made in Karnataka to achieve political goals.

"If we have to preserve the dignity of our members, we have to put an end to such incidents. It's a serious issue"

- G Parameshwara, Home Minister, Karnataka

State Home Minister G Parameshwara supported the opposition's claims and assured a high-level inquiry into such cases.

Responding to the accusations, Parameshwara stressed the need to curb such tendencies.

"If we have to preserve the dignity of our members, we have to put an end to such incidents. It's a serious issue," the Home Minister told the Assembly.

"I will order a high-level probe into it," he added.

While Cooperation Minister K N Rajanna informed the House that 48 people have fallen victim to "honey traps" in the state and their obscene videos have been circulated, state Public Works Minister Satish Jarkiholi alleged that a cabinet colleague faced two unsuccessful "honey trap" attempts.

"People say that there is a CD (compact disk) and pen drive factory in Karnataka. I have come to know that there are CDs and pen drives of 48 people available in the state. This network is spread across India and even several union ministers have been trapped," Rajanna said.

During a budget discussion, BJP legislator Basanagouda Patil Yatnal claimed that blackmail tactics were used to eliminate political rivals.

BJP MLA V Sunil Kumar echoed the concern, saying those who could not defeat their opponents have resorted to blackmailing to achieve their political goals.

He urged the government to take the matter seriously after a Minister claimed that 48 people have been "honey trapped".

"The situation is grim when a minister makes such a statement. We will conclude that the government is involved if it did not take action and give a proper reply on it," Kumar said.

He also accused the Congress government of running a "honey-trap factory", and demanded action from the Home department.

BJP legislator Munirathna alleged that he has been wrongly framed in a rape case and demanded that it be handed over to the CBI.

Earlier in the day, Minister Satish Jarkiholi claimed that two unsuccessful "honey trap" attempts were made on a senior minister in the state and called for a police investigation into the matter.

"... there were two attempts (on a minister), but they weren't successful. This is not the first honey trap incident in Karnataka," Jarkiholi told reporters in response to a question.
