New pipeline at Mollar-Nessai very soon, assures MLA

Team Herald store enough for daily use. On Tuesday, MLA Cruz Silva assured the residents that a new pipeline would be laid to resolve the issue once financial approval is granted. "I have asked the concerned officials to make temporary water arrangements for the residents. The entire pipeline will be replaced, and we are waiting for the work order," he said. Additionally, the MLA emphasised the need for a water storage facility and requested that residents identify a suitable location for the installation of an overhead water tank.
