China, B'desh sign nine agreements after key meeting between Xi, Yunus

PTI, BEIJING/DHAKA: China and Bangladesh on Friday signed nine agreements after Muhammad Yunus' meeting with President Xi Jinping during which the Bangladesh Chief Adviser highlighted student protests that led to regime change in Dhaka and urged Beijing to play a "greater role" in establishing peace and stability.

From the Chinese government and its companies, Bangladesh's official news agency BSS reported. Bangladesh welcomed Chinese companies to participate in the Teesta River Comprehensive Management and Restoration Project (TRCMRP), according to a joint statement issued after the meeting between Yunus and Xi.

Bangladesh welcomed Chinese companies to also participate in the Mongla Port Facilities Modernisation and Expansion Project, the joint statement said.

After his talks with Xi, the two countries signed nine agreements enhancing economic and technical cooperation between the two governments and co-operation in the areas of development, translation and publication of classical literary work, exchange and cooperation on cultural heritage, news exchange and media, and health sector, state-run news agency Bangladesh Sangbad Sangstha (BSS) said.

As the two leaders discussed issues related to bilateral interest, Yunus urged China to play a greater role in establishing peace, prosperity and stability for both nations, the BSS report said.

Protests across Jammu region against killing of cops

PTI, JAMMU: Several parts of the Jammu region witnessed protests on Friday following the killing of four policemen in an encounter with terrorists in Kathua district. The protesters demanded the launch of a massive combing operation to clear the region's hills of terrorists.

dent Raman Bhalla accused the BJP of not only failing to deliver on its promises but also of "gifting terrorism" to Jammu province — a region he described as having been thrust into chaos under the party's governance. He lashed out at the BJP-led Central government for its total failure in addressing the deteriorating security situation in the Jammu region, which has been marked by a series of terror attacks and ongoing encounters between the security forces and terrorists.

highlighting the last year's July-August students' mass protests in Bangladesh leading to the ouster of Sheikh Hasina government, Yunus told Xi that the movement paved a way to build a "New Bangladesh". Weeks before her ouster last year, Hasina too had made a high-profile visit to Beijing during which she held talks with Xi. The Interim government headed by Yunus took charge days after she fled to India on August 5. Xi, on his part, spoke about the long-standing history of "friendly exchanges" between the two countries and said China maintained a high degree of stability and continuity in ties with Bangladesh and Beijing continues to be a trustworthy neighbour, friend and partner of Dhaka, state-run Xinhua news agency reported.

Army deployed in east Kathmandu after deadly clashes

Two killed, 30 injured as pro-monarchy protestors pelted stones, set fire to vehicles and looted shops

PTI, KATHMANDU: The Army was called out and a curfew imposed on parts of Kathmandu Friday after two people were killed and 30 injured as pro-monarchy protestors pelted stones, attacked the office of a political party, set fire to vehicles and looted shops.

Nepal police fire tear gas to disperse pro-monarchy demonstrators demanding a Hindu state, in Kathmandu

District authorities first imposed a curfew at 4:25 PM till 10 PM, later extending it until 7 AM on Saturday. Nobody was allowed to move about in certain areas. Sabin Maharjan, 29, from Kathmandu, died at a hospital after sustaining a bullet injury during the clash, authorities said.

journalist with Avenues Television, died while shooting a video of the protest from a building in the Tinkune area, the site where monarchists clashed with security personnel and tried to break through security barriers. Rajak was on the top of the building when demonstrators set it ablaze after accusing police of launching tear gas from inside the structure, sources at the television channel said.

Household air pollution takes centre-stage at WHO conference in Colombia

PTI, CARTAGENA: Household air pollution from biomass fuels is the lowest-hanging fruit for India's National Clean Air Programme (NCAP), and it is already included as a sectoral priority, said Kalpana Balakrishnan, Director of the World Health Organisation Collaborating Centre for Occupational and Environmental Health.

on air pollution and health in Cartagena, Colombia, household air pollution has taken centre stage. Balakrishnan, one of the keynote speakers at the event, said that India is admirably placed in terms of infrastructure to address this issue. For a modest additional investment, we can achieve significant reductions in ambient PM2.5 levels, in addition to reducing residential PM2.5 exposures that the rural population experiences, she said. Speaking to PTI, Balakrishnan further emphasised that India possesses all the necessary elements to tackle household air pollution and could do so in ways that are cost-effective and inclusive of all possible stakeholders. We can demonstrate to the world that we can achieve what any other country can - and do it even

Germany says nothing off table in US tariff row

AFP, BERLIN: Germany said Friday it hopes the EU and United States can negotiate an agreement on US auto tariffs but the bloc was ready to retaliate, warning: "Nothing is off the table."

US President Donald Trump this week announced 25-percent US duties on foreign-made cars, light trucks and vehicle parts, sparking criticism from world powers and sending stock markets into a tailspin. The levies are due to take effect Thursday next week but Germany, the euro-zone's biggest economy and a major car manufacturer and exporter, noted that the European Union was seeking "intensive dialogue" with the United States.
