Bihar to open high-security jail for hardened criminals

PTI, PATNA: With several incidents of gangsters running their crime network from inside jails coming to the fore, Bihar Police has decided to open 'high-security' prison in the state, an official said on Tuesday. The Bihar Police has identified land at two locations in the state for the purpose and a detailed proposal will be sent to the authorities concerned for approval, the official said.

Talking to reporters, Additional Director General of Police (Headquarters), Kundan Krishnan, said, "Investigations into recent cases have revealed that certain gangsters are still running their crime network from inside jails. Sensing the gravity of the situation, Bihar Police has decided to send a comprehensive proposal to the authorities concerned for opening of 'high-security' prison in the state."

"We have identified land at two locations for the purpose," the ADG (Hqs) said. He, however, refused to divulge details about the locations which have been identified for the construction of 'high-security' prison.

A LIGHT THAT SHINES
In a sunlit room where laughter danced,
Lived a spirit so bright, with a heart entranced.
Eighty-eight years of warmth and grace,
A gentle smile that time couldn't efface.
Through shadows of struggle, he stood so tall,
With a joke on his lips, he lightened it all.
Never a complaint, just a twinkle in his eye,
In the face of goodbyes, he taught us to fly.
To my mother, his partner, a love forever,
In the quiet of evenings, recited prayers together.
With two sons and a daughter, his legacy's thread,
Runs deep through our hearts; though he's gone, he's not dead.
In gardens of memory, he blooms like a rose,
Each whisper of wind, and the stillness that flows.
We'll gather the stories, the laughter, the tears,
For a father's love echoes through all of our years.
So here's to the man who met life with cheer,
In a world that grows darker, he was always near.
With gratitude woven through shadows of pain,
We'll carry your light, Dad, through sunshine and rain.

There will be a Eucharistic celebration for the soul of our beloved Silvano offered by his sorrowful wife and children, on Thursday, April 3rd, 2025 at 5.00 p.m. at Our Lady of Assumption Church, Sarzora, followed by prayers and blessing of the grave.

Relatives, friends and neighbors kindly accept this as the only intimation.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
