PANJIM: Goa's chess community is proud to announce that Tanishq Kavlekar has officially become the youngest FIDE Arbiter (FA) in India.

He applied for the prestigious FIDE Arbiter title at just 19 years and 21 days, marking a historic milestone in Indian chess arbitration.

A remarkable achievement in chess officiating, Tanishq's journey as a chess arbiter has been filled with dedication and passion. Over the years, he has officiated in several prestigious tournaments, showcasing his deep understanding of the game and its regulations.

His achievement at such a young age highlights his exceptional commitment to the field.

Goa's chess fraternity congratulates him. The chess fraternity of Goa has extended its heartfelt congratulations to Tanishq for this remarkable accomplishment. His success serves as an inspiration to young chess players and officials, proving that journey is no barrier to achieving excellence in the sport. As he steps into this new role as a FIDE Arbiter, Tanishq is set to contribute significantly to the future of chess officiating in India.
