

Families of Murshidabad victims pour their hearts out to Governor, NCW; TMC cries foul

PTI, KOLKATA: Amidst patrolling by central and police forces in the riot-hit parts of Murshidabad district, West Bengal Governor CV Ananda Bose and National Human Rights Commission and National Commission for Women teams on Saturday separately visited the affected areas and interacted with the victims, assuring them of all possible help.

The ruling Trinamool Congress (TMC), however, criticised the visits and questioned the political motives behind them.

Violence broke out in Samsheganj, Suti, Dhulian and Jangpur areas of Murshidabad over anti-Waqf Amendment Act protests on April 11 and 12 that left three persons dead and hundreds displaced as their homes were burnt down and vandalised by miscreants.

During his visit to the district, a day after meeting riot-displaced people in Malda relief camps, Bose went to the home of Harogobindo Das and his son

West Bengal Governor C.V. Ananda Bose speaks with locals during a visit to a violence-hit area, in Murshidabad district, West Bengal Chandan in Jafrabad, Shamsheganj, who were killed in the violence. He met their grieving families, listening to their pleas for justice and demands for security.

"I will look into their requests. They have asked for permanent BSF outposts in the locality as they were concerned about their security. I will take up the matter with the appropriate authorities. Some proactive action will definitely be taken. I have also shared with them the 'Peace Room' number (Raj Bhavan helpline)," Bose told reporters after visiting their residence.

Later, after speaking to locals in Dhulian Bazar area, Bose said, "I have asked them (the victims) to feel free to talk to me. They want justice and they will get it. I am with the people of Bengal. I will function within the Constitution and establish the rule of law."

On Friday, despite Chief Minister Mamata Baner-

National Commission for Women (NCW) Chairman Vijaya Rahatkar and other officials of the commission during a meeting with riot-affected people, in Murshidabad district, West Bengal jee's request to postpone his visit, Bose visited Malda and met people who have taken shelter in a temporary relief camp after fleeing the violence-hit areas of Murshidabad district.

A NCW delegation, led by its chairperson Vijaya Rahatkar, also met riot-hit people in Murshidabad district and assured them that the Centre would take necessary steps to ensure their safety.

During the visit, affected women shared their harrowing experiences from the recent communal violence and demanded the establishment of permanent BSF camps in select areas and called for an NIA probe into the clashes.

Rahatkar said, "I am dumbfounded by the agony these women are having to suffer. What they went through during the violence is beyond imagination."

Actor Shine Tom Chacko arrested in drug case

PTI, KOCHI: Malayalam actor Shine Tom Chacko was arrested on Saturday in connection with alleged drug use but was released on station bail the same day. He was granted bail after a medical examination and other formalities.

Police have directed him to appear again on April 21. The arrest followed a nearly four-hour-long interrogation related to an incident in which Chacko allegedly fled from a Kochi hotel during a narcotics raid.

According to police, he was booked under Section 238 (causing disappearance of evidence) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), and Sections 27 (drug consumption) and 29 (abetment and criminal conspiracy) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act.

Chacko has been named as the first accused in the FIR, with Malappuram native Ahmed Murshad listed as the second accused, police officers said.

The FIR states that a District Anti-Narcotic Special Action Force (DANSAF) team under Kochi City Police found the two using drugs and engaged in a criminal conspiracy in Room No 314 of a hotel near Kaloor on Wednesday night.

Rain brings relief after scorching heat in Delhi

PTI, NEW DELHI: Rain, accompanied by gusty winds, lashed parts of Delhi on Friday evening, bringing relief from heat.

The weather monitoring stations, including Narela, Pitampura and Mayur Vihar, recorded 0.5 mm of rain-fall, according to data.

"A fresh cloud cluster has entered Delhi, causing very light to light rainfall and gusty winds of 30 to 40 kmph. It is likely to move across the city with similar intensity," the weather department said.

The showers also led to a drop in temperature.

The temperature fell from 36 degrees Celsius to 27 degrees Celsius in Pusa, Pitampura and Mayur Vihar recorded a drop from 37 degrees Celsius to 27 degrees Celsius.

The city recorded a maximum temperature of 41 degrees Celsius, 4.2 notches above normal, according to the India Meteorological Department (IMD).
