SEBI finds no mfg at Gensol's Pune plant

Flags company for misleading investors, fund diversion

PTI, NEW DELHI: Markets regulator SEBI has said it found 'no manufacturing activity' at Gensol Engineering's electric vehicle (EV) plant in Pune with only 2-3 labourers present when a National Stock Exchange (NSE) official visited the site. These revelations were part of markets regulator SEBI's interim order issued on April 15 following a complaint received in June 2024 alleging manipulation of Gensol's share price and misappropriation of funds.

In its order, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) found discrepancies as well as misleading disclosures to investors by Gensol Engineering, a company promoted by brothers Anmol Singh Jaggi and Puneet Singh Jaggi. One of the disclosures came from an investigation conducted by the NSE, which revealed a lack of manufacturing activity at Gensol's EV plant - Gensol Electric Vehicle Private Ltd - at Chakan in Pune.

During a site visit to the facility on April 9, an NSE official found only 2-3 labourers present. "It was found that there was no manufacturing activity at the plant with only 2-3 labourers present there. The NSE official called for details of electricity bills of the unit and it was observed that the maximum amount billed by Mahavitaran during the last 12 months was Rs 1,57,037.01 for December 2024. Hence, it can be inferred that there has been no manufacturing activity at the plant site which is on a leased property - Securities and Exchange Board of India

29,000 cars. The MoUs were in the nature of an expression of willingness with no reference to the price of the vehicle or delivery schedules. Therefore, it prima facie appeared that the company was making misleading disclosures to investors, SEBI stated. In another disclosure dated January 16, 2025, Gensol informed the exchanges regarding a strategic tie-up with Refex Green Mobility Ltd "for the
