CONDOLENCES

With profound shock we learnt about the untimely death of our former Parish Priest and close friend, Fr. Ubaldo. With his ever-smiling countenance, he put his parishioners at ease whenever they approached him, and with gentle firmness he guided his flock to true religion. Many of us who actually spoke and even met him over this Easter weekend, found him to be as jovial and warm as ever with not a hint that he would be soon taken away by the Lord, with Pope Francis as his travelling companion!
Dear Fr. Ubaldo, it's been an honour to have had you as our Parish Priest, mentor and friend. We will miss you and your smiling face.

A Tribute of Love
from your friends at Betalbatim Parish:
