

Hazlewood-inspired RCB triumph in see-saw battle

Rajasthan Royals crash out of play-off race

PTI, BENGALURU: Josh Hazlewood delivered a match-defining penultimate over to power Royal Challengers Bengaluru (RCB) to their first home victory of the IPL season, defeating Rajasthan Royals (RR) by 11 runs in a thrilling encounter at the M Chinnaswamy Stadium on Thursday.

IPL The Australian pacer, returning to bowl with RR needing 18 off the final 12 balls, conceded just one run and took two wickets in as many deliveries, finishing with figures of 4 for 33. His efforts sealed a crucial win for RCB and eliminated RR from play-off contention, with the Jaipur-based franchise suffering their seventh defeat in nine matches and fifth on the trot.

Chasing 206, RR were bowled out for 194 in 20 overs despite a whirlwind start led by Yashasvi Jaiswal (49 off 19) and teenager Vaibhav Suryavanshi. Jaiswal launched a brutal assault, smashing Hazlewood for five boundaries and a six, but the bowler eventually had his revenge by having him caught at mid-wicket.

Suryavanshi, RR's impact player, scored 16 off 8 balls with two sixes before falling to a Bhuvneshwar Kumar knuckleball. RR raced to 72/2 in the powerplay but lost momentum as wickets tumbled.

Dhruv Jurel (47 off 34) mounted a late fightback, but the required run rate kept climbing. Shimron Hetmyer, Riyan Parag (22 off 10), and Nitish Rana (28 off 22) all got starts, but none could anchor the innings. Hazlewood's final spell swung the match decisively in RCB's favour.

Earlier, Virat Kohli (70 off 42) and Devdutt Padikkal (50 off 27) anchored RCB's innings with a 95-run stand for the second wicket on a tricky pitch. Kohli notched his fifth half-century of the season—his first at home—with back-to-back boundaries off Sandeep Sharma.

Phil Salt (26 off 23) was dropped early by Parag, then punished the bowlers before falling to Wanindu Hasaranga. Jitesh Sharma (20* off 10) and Tim David (23 off 15) played vital cameos to lift RCB to 206 after a flurry of late boundaries.

There were early nerves for RCB, including a 149.8 km/h bumper from Jofra Archer that flew for four and a dropped catch in the second over, but Kohli's composure steadied the innings.

The Royals used Vaibhav Suryavanshi as their impact player and RCB deployed Suyash Sharma. RCB's win keeps their play-off hopes alive, while RR bow out of the tournament, unable to recover from a string of losses.

■ After being taken apart by Yashasvi Jaiswal earlier in the innings, Hazlewood returned with a stunning penultimate over—conceding just one run and claiming two wickets in two balls. This over decisively turned the match in RCB's favour and was the defining moment of the contest.

■ Jaiswal's explosive 49 off 19 balls, including a savage assault on Hazlewood, gave RR a flying start and put them ahead in the chase. However, his dismissal, also by Hazlewood, came just as he looked set to take the game away—triggering a loss of momentum for RR.

TWISTS & TURNS

■ The 95-run partnership between Kohli and Padikkal laid a solid foundation, but it was the late cameos by Jitesh Sharma and Tim David that pushed RCB past 200—a total that proved just enough to defend under pressure.

Rohit is a world-class player: Boulton

PTI, HYDERABAD: Mumbai Indians' pacer Trent Boult has backed 'world-class' Rohit Sharma to play a pivotal role in the team's pursuit for a record-extending sixth IPL title, following back-to-back half-centuries that signalled his timely return to form.

The Kiwi left-arm pacer was instrumental in dismantling Sunrisers Hyderabad's famed top order, returning with a match-winning spell of 4/26 to cap MI's fourth straight win in emphatic style.

After SRH collapsed to 143/8, MI, powered by Rohit's commanding 46-ball 70, chased down the target in just 15.4 overs. The emphatic win not only boosted their net run rate but also propelled them to third place on the points table.

"I think the whole side, the whole Mumbai Indians squad possesses some world-class players and obviously Rohit needs no introduction in that regard," Boult said at the post-match media interaction.

"I'm sure everyone wants to be contributing at some points, but Rohit's doing a fantastic job of late and playing nicely just at the right time. So he's going to play a huge role for us in the remaining part of the season. I think you just need to be prepared for any role, he added.

Boult also praised captain Hardik Pandya for his leadership style, calling it a refreshing experience.

"Hardik's a passionate cricketer, obviously very skilful. He's a great leader, I think. He leads from the front."

"He's a great communicator. He's one of my favourite Indian cricketers, so to get the chance to play underneath him is a great experience."

'Greatest-ever' Vardy to leave Leicester at end of season

LONDON: Jamie Vardy will leave former Premier League champions Leicester at the end of the season, the relegated club announced on Thursday, describing the lightning-quick forward as their 'greatest-ever player'. The talismanic striker, a key member of the side that lifted the English league title against seemingly impossible odds in 2016, vowed to continue playing even at the age of 38. The former England international joined the Foxes in 2012 from non-league side Fleetwood for £1.3 million and has scored 198 goals in nearly 500 appearances.

The club captain is Leicester's record Premier League goalscorer with 143 goals. He scored 24 times in the 2015/16 Premier League campaign, helping the Foxes to their first top-flight title in one of the greatest shocks in football history. Vardy was also part of Leicester's 2021 FA Cup-winning side, who beat Chelsea 1-0 at Wembley.

The third-ranked Spaniard said he has not fully recovered from the upper leg ailment that bothered him during the Barcelona Open final last Sunday. He also said he has a left leg injury. His first appearance at the Caja Magica in the Spanish capital was scheduled for Saturday. Alcaraz is a two-time champion in Madrid, having won in 2022 and 2023. He was the second seed this week and in the same half of the draw as Novak Djokovic. Alcaraz needed treatment on his leg during his straight-set loss to Holger Rune in the Barcelona final. He had not practiced in Madrid yet, and said this week that he felt "fine" but was waiting on medical test results to determine whether he would play.

Real win at Getafe to keep La Liga title hopes alive

AFP, MADRID: Arda Guler struck the only goal as Real Madrid won 1-0 at Getafe on Wednesday to claw back to within four points of La Liga leaders Barcelona.

Liverpool on brink of title after Arsenal held by Palace

AFP, LONDON: Mikel Arteta admitted Arsenal have to get their 'energy' back for the Champions League showdown with Paris Saint-Germain after a lacklustre 2-2 draw against Crystal Palace left Liverpool on the brink of winning the Premier League.

Arteta's side were hoping to warm up for their first Champions League semi-final appearance since 2009 with a victory over Palace at the Emirates Stadium.

But Jakub Kiwior's third-minute header for the Gunners was cancelled out by Eberechi Eze's volley in the 27th minute.

Leandro Trossard's strike put Arsenal back in front three minutes before half-time, only for Palace substitute Jean-Philippe Mateta to loft a brilliant lob over out of position keeper David Raya in the 83rd minute.

Second-placed Arsenal are 12 points adrift of Liverpool, and with only four matches left for the north Londoners, Arne Slot's team will seal the title if they avoid defeat against Tottenham at Anfield on Sunday.

Parma moved six points above the relegation zone following their first win in two months, which came after six straight draws.

Defeat for Juve was great news for Lazio who moved level on 59 points with the "Old Lady" of Italian football following a comfortable 2-0 win at Genoa, a match which finished with both teams down to 10 men.

Eighth-placed Fiorentina are one of four teams -- alongside Juve, Lazio and Roma -- within four points of fourth-placed Bologna after coming from behind to win 2-1 at Cagliari.

Jovic shoots AC Milan into Italian Cup final

AFP, MILAN: Luka Jovic fired AC Milan into the final of the Italian Cup with a brace in Wednesday's convincing 3-0 derby win over Inter Milan which sent his team through 4-1 on aggregate.

Serbia forward Jovic doubled his goal tally for the season, with Tijjani Reijnders sealing the tie late on, as Milan fans were given something to shout about in what has been an awful season for the seven-time European champions.

Milan are unbeaten in all five of this season's local derbies, winning the Super Cup final against Inter in January, and Wednesday's win also ended Inter's hopes of repeating the Serie A, Champions League and cup treble won under Jose Mourinho in 2010.

Conceicao's side, who sit ninth in Serie A and will almost certainly miss out on Champions League football next season, will likely face Bologna in next month's final in Rome.

Bologna lead Empoli 3-0 ahead of their second leg on Thursday and are set to reach a major tournament final for the first time since last winning the cup in 1974.
