

India in Group D with Myanmar, Indonesia & Turkmenistan

PTI, NEW DELHI: India was on Monday clubbed with Myanmar, Indonesia and Turkmenistan in Group D of the AFC U-20 Women's Asian Cup following the draw conducted in Kuala Lumpur.

Myanmar will host Group D of the Qualifiers between August 6 and 10 in a centralised single round-robin format.

A total of 33 teams were divided into eight groups. Group A has five teams while the rest seven have four each.

AFC U-20 WOMEN'S ASIAN CUP QUALIFIERS

The group winners and the three best runners-up, along with final round host country Thailand, will complete the cast of 12 teams for the 12th edition of the AFC U20 Women's Asian Cup, which will take place from April 1 to 18.

The top four teams in the final tournament will qualify for the 2026 FIFA U20 Women's World Cup. The AFC U20 Women's Asian Cup, an eight-team tournament until 2024, has been expanded to 12 teams from the 2026 edition onwards.

The seedings for the draw were based on a points system derived from the teams' final rankings across the previous three editions of the tournament. India were placed in Pot 2.

off a remarkable 6-5 victory over St Anthony SC, Assolda, to move into the next round of 26th Holy Cross Sports Clubs football tournament played Vodlemol ground, Kakoda.

Despite being just eight men, Cuncolim Union displayed extraordinary resilience and composure to clinch the win.

St Anthony SC dominated the opening half with a flurry of attacks but were unable to find the net. Against the run of play, it was Cuncolim Union who broke the deadlock in the 15th minute. Vinod Velip netted a fine goal after receiving a perfectly timed through ball from Daulat Dessai, giving Cuncolim Union a 1-0 lead and a burst of momentum.

However, their lead was short-lived. In the 26th minute, St Anthony SC equalised in a brilliant one-on-one move, calmly dribbling past the defence to slot it in and make it,

1-1. The second half saw, St Anthony SC upped their attacking tempo, making several quick attempts to reclaim the lead. But the depleted Cuncolim Union side held their ground with strong defensive organisation, frustrating St Anthony SC forwards.

With no goals in the second half, the match headed into a tie-breaker. Cuncolim Union held their nerves as Viral, Daulat, Tushar, Shankar
