An ensemble by all the participants of the Piano Concert with Maria de Graça Reis

Renowned pianist and music teacher Sonia Reis, along with her daughter Maria de Graça Reis — also a well-known piano teacher and pharmacist — organised a student concert at The Black Box, Ravindra Bhavan. Their students performed pieces of Western classical music in a piano concert attended by proud parents, music lovers, and piano enthusiasts. The sound of the piano keys provided a soothing backdrop as 25 participants presented a total of 30 performances, including a final ensemble featuring all the performers.

pieces such as 'Pop Goes the Weasel', 'Guantanamera', 'River Flows in You', 'Für Elise', and many more. Several of the performers have earned piano grades and diplomas from the prestigious Trinity College London.

New book on Mandur's rich Christian heritage

in honour of his priestly milestone. The book was officially released by Br Malvino Alfonso, Carmelite Brother and noted writer, in the presence of Clarina Braganza, moderator of the Parish Pastoral Council, parishioners and well-wishers.

Br Malvino praised Fr Manuel for his continued contribution to documenting Goa's religious and cultural legacy. "This book is not just a written work; it is a living testimony of a village's faith—its people, its priests, its sacred places, and the deep Christian roots that have shaped Mandur through the centuries," he said.

Renowned Konkani writer and senior diocesan priest, Fr Manuel Gomes, celebrated his 45th anniversary of priesthood with the release of his 25th book, 'Xant Amcho Mandurcho Ganv'. The launch took place following a solemn Eucharistic celebration held Fr Manuel, currently serves as the parish priest of Our Lady of Amparo Church, Mandur. A scholar with a Licentiate in Church History and a Master's in Spiritual Theology from the Dominican University in Rome, Fr Manuel has authored 25 books to date, each exploring themes of history, faith, and Goan culture.

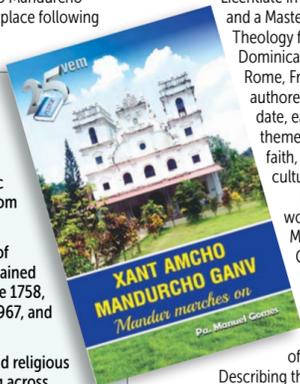

His newest work, 'Xant Amcho Mandurcho Ganv', is a detailed chronicle of the spiritual journey of Mandur.

Describing the book as a 'labour of love,' Br Malvino emphasised that it reflects Fr Manuel deep personal bond with the village and his commitment to preserving its rich spiritual and historical fabric. "This is more than a historical record—it is the story of a community's journey of faith," he said.

'Xant Amcho Mandurcho Ganv' stands as a valuable resource for scholars, clergy, and all who cherish the legacy of Goa's Christian heritage. Fr Manuel Gomes expressed his sentiments of gratitude. Brenda Fernandes, secretary of the Parish Pastoral Council, anchored the book release ceremony.

THE BOOK INCLUDES:

- The origins and legacy of the historic Nossa Senhora de Bom Sucesso Chapel.
- Detailed records of Diocesan priests ordained from Mandur—before 1758, between 1758 and 1967, and after 1967.
- Current priests and religious from Mandur serving across the Church.
- The role of Our Lady of Amparo School, the local music school, and other chapels in nurturing the faith community.
- Insights into legacy Masses, a local tradition of remembrance and devotion.
- A dedicated chapter on the present-day Mandur Church and its pastoral and social initiatives.
- A tribute to Diocesan priests who have served in Mandur through the years.
