Heavy rain batters Delhi; three children among 4 dead

Over 200 flights delayed due to waterlogging

PTI, NEW DELHI: An intense storm with heavy early-morning rain hit Delhi on Friday, causing a house collapse that killed a woman and her three children and delaying more than 200 flights, even as the city grappled with widespread waterlogging, raising concerns over the monsoon preparedness of government and civic agencies.

The India Meteorological Department (IMD) said this was the second-highest 24-hour spell of rain witnessed by the national capital in May since 1901.

Authorities received around 300 complaints regarding uprooted trees and branches falling as the storm, with a wind speed of 80 kilometres per hour, hit Delhi in the early hours, damaging several vehicles.

Visuals from different areas showed uprooted trees and people stuck in waterlogged roads.

Waterlogging was reported from across the city, with persistent issues at notorious stretches, such as Minto Road, ITO, Dhaula

Vehicles waded through the waterlogged Minto Bridge underpass amid rains in New Delhi

Kuan, Indraprastha, Ring Road, R K Puram, Lakshmi Nagar, South Extension and Chirag Dilli.

The torrential rain was caused by moisture and wind convergence over the region, fed by both the Arabian Sea and the Bay of Bengal, the weather department said.

According to data from the IMD, Safdarjung, Delhi's main weather station, recorded 77 mm of rain in just six hours, between 2:30 am and 8:30 am, the second highest in four years.

Other areas also saw significant rainfall, with Lodhi Road receiving 78 mm, Pragati Maidan and Pitampura 71.5 mm each, Ridge 59.2 mm, Pusa 50 mm, Palam 45.6 mm, Najafgarh 40 mm, Anagar 39.4 mm and Jaffarpur 67.5 mm.

The weather office has forecast a cloudy sky, with the possibility of rain or thunderstorms for the next six days.

On Friday, videos surfaced on social media of half-submerged vehicles

SC agrees to hear PIL against amended UP law on religious conversion

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Friday agreed to consider a plea challenging the constitutional validity of the 2024 amended Uttar Pradesh law on "unlawful religious conversion".

A bench of Chief Justice Sanjiv Khanna and Justices Sanjay Kumar and K V Viswanathan took note of the submissions of senior lawyer S Muralidhar who said certain provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act, as amended in 2024, were "vague and overly broad" and the ambiguity infringed upon free speech and religious propagation.

The CJ, however, did not issue a notice on the plea for time being and said it will be heard along with other pending petitions on May 13.

The top court was hearing a PIL filed by Roop Rekha Verma, who hails from Lucknow, and others against the amended law. The plea, filed through advocate Purnima Krishna, alleged the law infringed upon Articles 14 (equality before the law), 19 (freedom of speech and expression), 21 (right to life and personal liberty) and 25 (freedom of religion) of the Constitution. Sections 2 and 3 of the Act, it claimed, were "vague, overly broad, and lack clear standards" which made it difficult to determine what constituted an offense.
