RAIA: Goa's Wheelchair Cricket team finished with Captain Stany D'Souza clinching the runners-up trophy in the Telangana Triangular Wheelchair Cricket Series after a high-voltage final clash under the lights against hosts State Telangana, recently.

Despite a valiant knock by vice-captain Niklesh Pednekar, who remained unbeaten on 91* off 51 balls, Goa fell short chasing Telangana's mammoth total of 234/4, ending their innings at 186/3.

Niklesh was the undisputed star of the tournament, scoring a tournament-high 191 runs, including 44 boundaries across three matches. He was adjudged the best batsman of the tournament and man-of-the-match against Gujarat for his blistering 70* off 44 balls, along with a direct-hit run-out. He also contributed with the ball, taking two wickets, and was involved in four crucial run-outs during the series.

In the final, Telangana's innings was powered by Parashuram's 98 and Captain Arun John's 67. Goa's fielding highlight came when Gauresh Marathe pulled off a sensational catch to dismiss Telanga-na's wicketkeeper and most aggressive batsman, Shek Monu at 17. However, the solid batting by the hosts proved decisive.

TELANGANA TRIANGULAR SERIES

Goa began their campaign with a loss against Telangana despite setting a respectable 125/5, supported by Niklesh Pednekar (30) and Marathe (36). Telangana chased down the target in just 10 overs, but Santosh Gawas picked up three wickets, while Niklesh Pednekar, Marathe and Vinod Kumbhar took two wickets each. Goa bounced back with a stunning win over Gujarat to seal a spot in the final. The victory was built on strong batting from Marathe (49* off 52) and Niklesh Pednekar (70* off 44), setting up a total of 175/6. Gujarat, featuring national-level players, could only reach 150, thanks to disciplined bowling led by Marathe (2 wickets) and Niklesh Pednekar (1 wicket) and excellent fielding by the fielding squad.

In a proud moment, captain Stany D'Souza clinched the runners-up trophy on behalf of Team Goa, recognising the collective grit and resilience of the squad.

Varca are Chotanagpur Youth Football champions

RAIA: Varca emerged champions in the Chotanagpur Youth football tournament organised by Arnold Seva Kendra (ASK) Goa in partnership with the Chotanagpur Youth Group, after edging out Pompurpa in a dramatic final decided by penalties. The tightly contested match, held at the SVD Seminary ground, ended 2-2 in regulation time before Varca triumphed in the shootout.

The tournament stood out for its emphasis on inclusivity, with each team required to field at least two girls at all times, promoting gender equality in sport. A total of 11 teams from across Goa participated in the vibrant 5-a-side competition.

In the earlier stages, teams battled through the league round with high levels of skill and sportsmanship. The top four teams - Verna, Varca, Olaulim and Pompurpa - progressed to the semi-finals. Pompurpa saw off Verna in the first semi-final, while Varca got the better of Olaulim to set up an exciting final showdown.

In the third-place match, Verna defeated Olaulim in a closely contested fixture to claim the bronze position.

Melroy (Varca) was named best goalkeeper for his crucial saves and leadership from the back. Sanju (Pompurpa) was recognised as best male player for his tactical impact throughout the tournament, while Eshleen (Varca) earned best female player for her all-round contribution to her team's success. Deepak (Verna) took the title of highest male goal scorer, and Venita (Verna) emerged as the highest female goal scorer thanks to her consistent finishing.

The tournament was inaugurated by Fr Innocent Fernandes, SVD, Rector of the SVD Seminary in the presence of Fr Caetano, SVD, and Fr Roque, SVD. Fr Michael Pereira, SVD, the main organiser, expressed heartfelt thanks to Prakash and the Verna Chotanagpur Youth for their efforts in staging the tournament.

Antruz Aviators face Ultracon Madgaon Royals in final today

sports@herald-goia.com

PANJIM: Antruz Aviators entered the final while Mapusa Dream Crushers hopes dashed in the Sarsangan Priority

Veterans Cricket Series played at the Arlem cricket ground, recently.

In the first match, Mapusa Dream Crushers beat Ultracon Madgaon Royals but failed to qualify for final due to a point difference.

Put into bat first, Ultracon Madgaon Royals put on 174-6 in 20 overs with Narcinva Shanbhag (20), Anish Dharwadkar (37), Vishwesh Kamat (24) and Ashesh Duple (22 no) being the key contributors. Laxmikant Kurade, Bhushan Pai Vernekar, Shailesh Mahajan and Mahesh Kudchadkar picked a wicket each.

In reply, Mapusa Dream

Vallabh Pai, Ashutosh Pai Angle and Nagnath Shanbhag present the best bowler award to Siddesh Bodke, man-of-the-match to Sudin Kamat and best batter to Prasad Bhende Crushers chased down the target making 176-2 in 17.5 overs thanks to Nilesh Prabhudesai (29), Vibhav Pai (35), Avinash Kossambe (36), Laxmikant Kurade (35) and Amith Kamat (21 no). None of the Royals bowlers could pick a wicket.

Vibhav Pai collected the Drogaria Colvalcar man-of-the-match, Anish Dharwadkar received Priority Constructors best batter and Bhushan Pai Vernekar was awarded the Wakao best bowler.

In the second match, Antruz Aviators defeated Delite Titans.

Electing to bat first, Delite Titans lost three wickets before Sanjay Ne-travalkar (35) and Vishnu Namshikar (24) steadied their innings to take them to 103-4. Two wickets each by Balkrishna Kamat and Gomakant Maham-

Anish Dharwadkar receives the best batter, Vibhav Pai the man-of-the-match and Bhushan Pai Vernekar the best bowler awards from Sudin Kamat and Amogh Namshikar brey saw the Titans end up at 141-8 with only Sandip Thali (19) and Amogh Namshikar (20 no) offering some resistance. Balkrishna Kamat with 2-11 and Gomakant Mahambrey with 2-18 received support from Sudin Kamat, Sarvesh Kamat, Rasik Pai Khot and Jaiprakash Kunde who picked a wicket each.

In reply, needing a win to enter the final, Antruz Aviators started on a promising note through Sudin Kamat (35) and Sarvesh Kamat (19) and were aided later by Prasad Bhende (37) to be 123-3, needing 19 in 22 balls.

Siddesh Bodke brought the Titans back into the match picking a hat-trick dismissing Mahendra Pai Kuchelkar, Jayesh Timblo and Santosh Kuncolienkar, leaving the Aviators to get 19 in 19 balls. Rasik Pai Khot (17 no) and Raju She-nai Salgaonkar (5 no) completed the formalities helping the Aviators to reach the target making 142-6 with 3 balls to spare.

Siddesh Bodke with 4-12 was the pick of the bowlers, while Siddesh Desai and Sandip Audi picked a wicket each.

Sudin Kamat collected the Drogaria Colvalcar man-of-the-match award, Prasad Bhende was adjudged the Priority Constructors best batter, while Siddesh Bodke picked the Wakao best bowler award.

Having topped the points table with 12 points and a higher NRR, Antruz Aviators entered the final to be played on May 4, against Ultracon Madgaon Royals, who also finished with 12 points. Mapusa Dream Crushers (11 points) will face Delite Titans in the third place play-off match.
