Leopard storms home in Sakorda, chased out by resident

Increasing wild animal sightings spark concern

Team Herald

PONDA: A resident of Tambahisurl, Sakorda, had a terrifying encounter on Tuesday night when a leopard entered his house while chasing a cat, offering what he described as a "thrilling and terrifying" experience.

The incident occurred at around 8.45 pm at the roadside home of Santosh Chari. Fortunately, both Chari and his pet cat escaped the attack unscathed.

Chari was seated on a chair and busy typing on his mobile phone when the leopard suddenly entered through the main entrance, pursuing one of his four to five pet cats. The alert cat quickly dashed under the chair where Chari was seated, narrowly avoiding the predator.

As the leopard failed in its first attempt to catch the cat, it advanced further into the house, seemingly preparing for a second strike. In a moment of quick thinking, Chari hurled a chair at the animal, successfully driving it out. The leopard fled through the side bushes, retreating into the wild.

"I had a terrifying experience when the leopard entered the house in an attempt to prey on my cat," Chari recounted.

This is the first such incident reported in the area. The increasing movement of wildlife into human habitats has sparked concern among villagers, with the episode leaving a lingering sense of fear despite no injuries being reported.
