O HERALDO

SC rejects fresh pleas against Waqf law, warns against publicity-driven petitions

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Friday refused to examine a couple of fresh pleas challenging the constitutional validity of the Waqf (Amendment) Act, 2025, saying everybody wants name in newspapers. A bench comprising Chief Justice B R Gavai and Justice Augustine George Masih said it would decide the pending matter scheduled to come up on May 20.

The apex court would then hear the point of interim relief in the case. As soon as one of the pleas came up for hearing on Friday, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for the Centre, objected and said there can't be an "endless" filing of pleas challenging the Act. The counsel appearing for the petitioner said he had filed the petition on April 8 and removed the defects pointed out by the apex court registry on April 15 but his plea was not listed for hearing.

"Everybody wants his name to be in the newspaintervenors."

pers," the CJI observed. When the lawyer urged the bench his plea should be tagged with the pending petitions, the bench said, "We will decide that matter."

The bench then dismissed it. When another similar plea came up for hearing, the bench said, "Dismissed". When the counsel for the petitioner urged that he be allowed to intervene in the pending pleas, the CJI said,

We already have too many as waqf by courts, waqf-by-

On April 17, the apex court decided to hear only five of the total number of pleas before it. The pleas challenging the Act came up for hearing before a bench comprising the CJI and Justice Masih on May 15.

The bench said it would hear arguments on May 20 for passing interim directions on three issues including the power to denotify properties declared user or waqf by deed. The second issue raised by the petitioners relates to the composition of state waqf boards and the Central Waof Council, where they contend only Muslims should operate except ex-officio members.

The third issue relates to a provision that says a waqf property will not be treated as a waqf when the collector conducts an inquiry to ascertain if the property is

On April 17, the Centre assured the top court that it would neither denotify waqf properties, including "waqf by user", nor make any appointments to the central waqf council and boards till May 5.

Mehta on May 15 told the apex court that in any case, there was a subsisting assurance of the Centre that no waqf properties, including those established by waqf by user, would be denotified.

Jobless teachers continue to protest outside West Bengal education dept PTI, KOLKATA: A day fered minor injuries in after a series of violent clashes broke out between agitating school teachers and police in and around the headquarters of the West Bengal Education Department in Salt Lake, protesters continued their demonstration outside the government complex on Friday. The teachers, who lost their jobs following a recent Supreme Court order that cancelled thousands of appointments in government-aided schools due to irregularities in the recruitment process, assembled near the Bikash Bhavan compound and raised slogans against the West Bengal government. They did not show any intention to barge into the state education department headquarters by breaking the lock of the main gate because of the presence of a heavy police deployment.

Many of those who suf-

Indian Coast Guard (ICG) personnel conduct the rescue of six crew members of cargo vessel MSV SALAMATH, which sank in the early hours, approximately 60-70 nautical miles southwest of Mangalore the clashes on Thursday returned to the site and joined the demonstration, said a member of the Deserving Teachers' Rights Forum. The number of protesters, including colleagues of jobless teachers and their friends from other professions, swelled to over a thousand from around 200 in the morning.

Chinmoy Mondal, one of the spokespersons of the forum, said thousands of civil rights activists and political workers without party colours are expected to gather outside Bikash Bhavan on Friday evening to express solidarity with the movement of teachers, and a future roadmap of the protest would be announced

Of around 100 protesters injured in police action on Thursday, at least 60-70 had to be hospitalised and are undergoing treatment, he said
