Ashoka University prof arrested for posts on Operation Sindoor

PTI, SONIPAT (HARYANA): Ashoka University's head of the political science department, Ali Khan Mahmudabad, was arrested on Sunday after two FIRs were lodged on stringent charges, including endangering sovereignty and integrity, for his social media posts related to Operation Sindoor, police and his lawyer said.

One of Mahmudabad's lawyers, Kapil Balyan, said that the associate professor was produced before a court this evening and was remanded in police custody for two days in a case registered on the complaint from the Haryana State Commission for Women late Saturday night.

The arrest comes days after the Commission sent a notice to him questioning his remarks, though Mahmudabad had maintained that they were "misunderstood" and asserted that he had exercised his fundamental right to freedom of speech.

Deputy Commissioner of Police Narender Kadyan said two FIRs were lodged at the Rai police station here - one based on a complaint from the chairperson of Haryana State Commission for Women, Renu Bhatia, and the other on the complaint of a village sarpanch.

"Ali Khan Mahmudabad has been arrested in Delhi," Assistant Commissioner of Police, Rai, Ajeet Singh said over phone, adding the action came in connection with some comments related to Operation Sindoor.

Mahmudabad's lawyer has refuted the charges against him and said the remarks were within the bounds of academic and democratic discourse.

Balyan said the defence argued before the court that Mahmudabad is a nationalist and a patriot and his social media post has been wrongly interpreted.

In a letter dated May 16 to the state DGP, the Haryana Women Commission had made a recommendation for registration of an FIR against Mahmudabad "based on prima facie evidence and precedent".

"On the Commission chairperson's complaint, the FIR has been lodged against Professor Ali of Ashoka University under BNS sections 152 (acts endangering sovereignty or unity and integrity of India), 353 (statements conducing to public mischief), 79 (deliberate actions aimed at insulting the modesty of a woman) and 196 (1) (promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion)," Kadyan told reporters here.

Balyan claimed the sarpanch who lodged the complaint "is also associated with state BJP Yuva Morcha".

"The case was lodged on Saturday and the next morning, the professor was arrested from Delhi. No notice was given to him and he was taken into custody by police," the lawyer said.

Police said the case has been lodged on sarpanch's complaint under BNS sections 152, 196 (promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language etc. and doing acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony), 197 (imputations, assertions, prejudicial to national integration) and 299 (deliberate and malicious acts, intended to outrage religious feelings of any class by insulting its religion or religious beliefs).

All these sections are non-bailable.

Ex-Union minister RCP Singh joins Jan Suraj Party in Bihar

PTI, PATNA: Bihar CM Nitish Kumar's former close aides Prashant Kishor and RCP Singh joined hands on Sunday and vowed to take on their ex-mentor in the assembly polls due in a few months.

Singh, who is also a former Union minister, announced the merger of his Aap Sabki Aawaz, floated barely six months ago, with Kishor's Jan Suraj Party.

Both Kishor and Singh had been in Kumar's JD(U) before falling apart with the chief minister.

"Both of us will work together to make Bihar a developed state," Singh said at a function here.

Kishor told reporters, "RCP Singh was part of a political alignment that paved the way for the alliance between Nitish Kumar and Lalu Prasad in 2015. What happened in 2015 will now be repeated with the Jan Suraj Party in the coming assembly polls. He will play a leading role in the party."
