

Music students display their talent at annual concert at Sanquelim

Destiny Music Academy, Sanquelim, hosted its 12th Annual Music Concert at Ravindra Bhavan, Sanquelim. The vibrant event was a celebration of talent, dedication, and musical excellence, marking another significant milestone in the Academy's journey of nurturing young musicians over the past twelve years.

The chief guest for the evening was renowned Konkani singer and composer, Saiesh Panandikar, who delivered an inspiring address. Emphasising the unifying power of the arts, he remarked, "Art does not discriminate between students from cities or rural villages. It connects us all through emotion and expression." His words resonated deeply with students, parents, and dignitaries present.

The guest of honour, Ramakant Shetye, Chairman of Baba Savaikar Seva Prathishthan Second Inning and Jeshu Seva Kendra, Bicholim congratulated the Academy's Director on twelve successful years and praised the institution's contribution to music education in the region. Special invitees included Shivanand Khedekar, noted fine artist and longstanding supporter of the Academy, and Vishant Chimulkar, vice chairman of Ravindra Bhavan, Sankhali. Both commended the quality and dedication of the young performers. Sameer Prabhu, a key mentor and steadfast pillar of the academy, took the audience through the Academy's journey and shared its vision for the future, aiming to elevate both students and the institution to new heights. A highlight of the evening was the performance by 104 students, who showcased their skills through a wide range of vocal and instrumental pieces, earning enthusiastic applause from the audience. Several students were felicitated for their outstanding achievements, including 21 who successfully passed the Trinity College London music examinations. Special recognitions were awarded which included Student of the Year to Susmita Bhagat, Best Performer to Aaron Vaz, Most Disciplined Student to Shrikant Gaonkar and Topper of the Year to Sainath Gaonkar. The event was seamlessly compered by Audrey Xavier, Abhinaya, and fellow students, reflecting not only their musical talents but also their confidence and leadership skills. The programme concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Deepthi Ghodse, who expressed sincere gratitude to students, parents, guests, and well-wishers for their continued support and belief in the transformative power of music. The entire event was organised under the able guidance of Patrisan Andrade, Founder and Director of Destiny Music Academy. He extended his heartfelt appreciation to his dedicated team for their unwavering support in making the concert a grand success.
