PTI, NEW DELHI: India on Thursday once again made it clear that talks with Pakistan can only happen if it stops cross-border terrorism.
New Delhi's comments came in response to Pakistan Prime Minister Shehbaz Sharif expressing willingness to hold peace talks with India to resolve all outstanding issues, including Kashmir, terrorism, water and trade.
"We would like to reiterate that terrorism and talks cannot go together," External Affairs Ministry Spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said at his weekly media briefing.
His assertion came when

“As far as the Indus Water Treaty is concerned, it will remain in abeyance till the time Pakistan credibly and irrevocably abjures its support to cross-border terrorism
—Randhir Jaiswal, External Affairs Ministry Spokesperson

Pakistan needs to hand over to India the terrorists, whose list we submitted to them some years ago, he said.
"As far as the Indus Water Treaty is concerned, it will remain in abeyance till the time Pakistan credibly and irrevocably abjures its support to cross-border terrorism just like Prime Minister Narendra Modi said: 'terror and talks cannot go together, terror and trade cannot go together, and water and blood cannot flow together.'"
India on April 23 announced a raft of punitive measures against Pakistan including suspension of the Indus Waters Treaty.

The measures were announced a day after the Pahalgalam terror attack that killed 26 people.
India carried out precision strikes on nine terror infrastructures early on May 7 in response to the Pahalgalam terror attack.
Following the Indian action, Pakistan attempted to attack Indian military bases on May 8, 9 and 10.
The Pakistani attempts were strongly responded to by the Indian side by inflicting heavy damages to a number of key Pakistani military installations including air bases, air defence systems, command and control centres and radar sites.

India rejects Washington's claim of using trade sop to halt conflict

PTI, NEW DELHI: India on Thursday said the issue of trade did not come up at all in talks between Indian and American leaders during its military clashes with Pakistan, virtually rejecting Washington's repeated claims that its offer of trade stopped the confrontation.

US Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick told a New York court that India and Pakistan reached a 'tenuous ceasefire' only after President Donald Trump offered both nations trading access with the US to avert a 'full-scale war' ation Sindoore commenced on May 7 till the understanding on cessation of firing and military action was reached on May 10, there were conversations between Indian and the US leaders on the evolving military situation," External Affairs Ministry spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal said.

"The issue of trade or tariff did not come up in any of those discussions," he said at his weekly media briefing.
Jaiswal was answering questions on the Trump administration's submission at the New York court.
"The external affairs minister has also made it clear that the cessation of firing was decided upon in direct contacts between the DG-MOs of India and Pakistan," Jaiswal said.
Lutnick made the submission in the Court of International Trade last week, while opposing any attempt to restrain Trump from using emergency powers to impose tariffs.
The top official said the president's power to impose tariffs is crucial to his ability to conduct real-world diplomacy.

INDO-PAK FACEOFF

US Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick told a New York court that India and Pakistan reached a "tenuous ceasefire" only after President Donald Trump offered both nations trading access with the US to avert a "full-scale war".
In the last few weeks, Trump has also repeatedly...claimed...that...he threatened India and Pakistan that the US will stop trade with the two nations if they don't stop the conflict.
India has been consistently maintaining that the understanding on cessation of hostilities with Pakistan was reached following direct talks between the Directors General of Military Operations (DGMOs) of the two militaries.

Kejriwal moves court seeking NOC for passport renewal in Delhi excise case

PTI, NEW DELHI: Former Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal, an accused in the Delhi excise policy case, moved court on Thursday seeking a no objection certificate (NOC) for the renewal of his passport.
Special Judge Dig Vinay Singh issued notice to Enforcement Directorate (ED) and Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and sought their replies by June 4, the next date of hearing.
Kejriwal's counsel told the court that his passport expired in 2018 and he has moved the application seeking its renewal for 10 years.
The CBI, meanwhile, told the judge that it is ready for arguments on framing of charges in the corruption case related to the alleged excise policy scam.
While the corruption case linked to the now-scrapped Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22 is being probed by the CBI, a money laundering case is being investigated by the ED.
The Delhi government implemented the policy on November 17, 2021, and scrapped it by the end of September 2022 amid allegations of corruption.
