Iran has amassed more near weapons-grade uranium: UN

AP, VIENNA: Iran has further increased its stockpile of uranium enriched to near weapons-grade levels, a confidential report by the UN nuclear watchdog said on Saturday and called on Tehran to urgently change course and comply with the agency's probe.

The report comes at a sensitive time as Tehran and Washington have been holding several rounds of talks over a possible nuclear deal that US President Donald Trump is trying to reach.

The report by the Vienna-based International Atomic Energy Agency — which was seen by The Associated Press — says that as of May 17, Iran has amassed 408.6 kilogrammes of uranium enriched up to 60 per cent.

That's an increase of 133.8 kilogrammes since the IAEA's last report in February.

That material is a short, technical step away from weapons-grade levels of 90 per cent. A report in February put the stockpile at 274.8 kilogrammes.

The IAEA chief Rafael Mariano Grossi has stressed repeatedly that "Iran is the only non-nuclear weapon state enriching to this level".

On Saturday, Grossi said he "reiterates his urgent call upon Iran to cooperate fully and effectively" with the IAEA.

On Thursday, senior Iranian officials dismissed speculation about an imminent nuclear deal with the United States, emphasising that any agreement must fully lift sanctions and allow the country's nuclear program to continue.

The comments came a day after Trump said he has told Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to hold off on striking Iran to give the US administration more time to push for a new nuclear deal with Tehran.

Trump said on Friday that he still thinks a deal could be completed in the "not too distant future".

"They don't want to be blown up. They would rather make a deal," Trump said of Iran. He added, "That would be a great thing that we could have a deal without bombs being dropped all over the Middle East."

Trump said he's warned Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu from preemptive strikes on Iran's nuclear program, while the talks are playing out.

Rescuers fan out after Nigeria flooding kills over 150

AFP, ABUJA: Search teams fanned out Saturday from the epicentre of deadly flash flooding in Nigeria, the Red Cross said, as the death toll from heavy rains in the north-central market town of Mokwa topped 150.

The sharp rise in the toll came as bodies were recovered nearly 10 kilometres (six miles) from the town, where more than 250 buildings were levelled and two bridges were swept away, a spokesman for the Niger State Emergency Management Agency, Ibrahim Audu Hussein, told AFP.

This flood has been particularly deadly in Mokwa, a farming region near the banks of the River Niger amu said, and more than 100 people were missing.

Nigeria's rainy season, which usually lasts six months, is just getting started for the year.

Heavy rains and poor infrastructure lead to flooding that wreaks havoc every year, killing hundreds of people across the west African country.

Scientists have also warned that climate change is fuelling more extreme weather patterns.

Roads were still inundated in Mokwa on Friday, an AFP journalist saw, with Hussein saying his team would need excavators to reach bodies feared buried under the rubble. Residents in the town, around 350 kilometres by road from the capital Abuja, were still searching for relatives. In some cases, families were missing a dozen people.

"If there were some bodies that were carried away by the flooding, we'll find them in the farmland on the Jebba side."

According to a tally provided by Hussein, 151 people were killed, 3,018 were displaced, 265 houses were destroyed and two bridges were washed away in the busy market town.

Mohammed Tanko, 29, a civil servant, pointed to a house he grew up in, telling reporters Friday: "We lost at least 15 from this house. The property (is) gone. We lost everything."

Pentagon warns China 'preparing' to use military force in Asia

AFP, SINGAPORE: US Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth warned on Saturday that China was "credibly preparing" to use military force to upend the balance of power in Asia, vowing the United States was "here to stay" in the region.

The Pentagon chief made the remarks at an annual security forum in Singapore as the administration of US President Donald Trump spars with Beijing on trade, technology, and influence over strategic corners of the globe.

China's embassy in Singapore blasted the speech, accusing Washington of escalating tensions in the region and "profiting from creating risks of war".

Trump has launched a trade war with China since taking office in January, has sought to curb its access to key AI technologies and deepened security ties with allies such as the Philippines, which is engaged in escalating territorial disputes with Beijing.

Colombia withdraws statement offering condolences to Pak: Tharoor

PTI, BOGOTA: Colombia has withdrawn a statement offering condolences to Pakistan for the loss of lives following India's military strikes in response to the Pahalgam attack after an Indian parliamentary delegation explained Islamabad's relentless support to cross-border terrorism.

Congress MP Shashi Tharoor, leading an all-party delegation to the South American country, confirmed Bogota's withdrawal of the controversial statement after meeting Vice Foreign Minister Rosa Yolanda Villavicencio.

In the last two days, the nine-member delegation held a series of meetings with Colombia's senior political brass, apprising India's policy of "zero tolerance for terrorism" and its retaliatory strikes against terror infrastructure on Pakistani soil following the April 22 Pahalgam attack.

"Began today with an excellent meeting with the Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs of Colombia, Rosa Yolanda Villavicencio, and her senior colleagues dealing with the Asia-Pacific," Tharoor said in a social media post.

"I expressed India's view of recent events and voiced disappointment at Colombia's statement on 8 May conveying 'heartfelt condolences' to Pakistan," he said.

"The Minister assured me that the statement had been withdrawn and that our position was now properly understood and strongly supported," the Congress MP added.

At a media briefing on Thursday, Tharoor voiced his deep disappointment over Colombia offering condolences for the loss of lives in Pakistan following India's military actions.

However, there was no official word from New Delhi on Colombia's position following India's Operation Sindoor and its withdrawal of the statement.

India has sent seven separate delegations to different parts of the globe to apprise the key countries about Pakistan's relentless support to cross-border terrorism and circumstances leading to its launch of Operation Sindoor.

In Bogota, the Indian delegation also met Alejandro Toro, the president of the Second Commission of the Chamber of Representatives (equivalent to India's parliamentary committee on foreign affairs) and Jaime Raul Salamanca, president of the Chamber of Representatives (equivalent of Lok Sabha speaker).

34 terrorists arrested, major attack foiled in Pakistan's Punjab

PTI, LAHORE: At least 34 terrorists were arrested when a major terror attack was foiled by law enforcement agencies in Punjab province of Pakistan, a statement said on Saturday.

Most of the arrested militants belong to the banned Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) group, with three of them categorised as the "most dangerous terrorists", a Counter-Terrorism Department (CTD) statement said.

The statement said it conducted 415 intelligence-based operations in different districts of the province during this week and arrested 34 terrorists.

It said the terrorists planned to target law enforcers and important buildings in the province and were arrested from various locations in Lahore, Rawalpindi, Gujranwala, Jhelum, Bahawalpur, Sahiwal, Narowal, Jhelum, Paktattan, Bahawalnagar, Bukhara, Kasur and Nankana Sahib.

Their plan has successfully been foiled, it said, adding three of them were "the most dangerous ones and wanted by police".

Explosives, 5,841 grams, detonators 19, safety fuse wire 51 feet, hand grenades, and banned literature were recovered from their possession, the statement said.

The CTD said it registered 23 cases against the terrorists and was carrying out further investigation into the matter.
