Teenage girl raped and impregnated by man in Maharashtra; accused on the run

LATUR: A 17-year-old girl was allegedly raped and impregnated by a man in AUSA taluka of Maharashtra's Latour district, police said on Tuesday. The crime took place over a period of seven months, and the accused has been the run since the case was registered at the AUSA police station on May 30, they said. The accused reportedly kept a close watch on the girl, frequently visiting the farm shed when she was present. On one such occasion, he allegedly sexually assaulted the minor and threatened to kill her if she disclosed about the incident to her family members. The minor's ordeal, which began seven to eight months ago, came to light recently, he said. A medical examination of the victim confirmed that she was six months pregnant, he added.

Three arrested with arms and ammunition in Jharkhand

JAMSHEDPUR (JHARKHAND): Three persons have been arrested and arms and ammunition seized from their possession in Jamshedpur city of Jharkhand, police said. Acting on a tip-off, police raided Marine Drive Road at Ramnagar beside Kharkhai River in Kadma police station area on Monday and nabbed the trio following a chase as they were trying to flee, Superintendent of Police (City) Kumar Shivashish said. Of the three, two buyers, identified as Lalit Yadav (33) and Rakesh Kumar (30), had come to the spot to purchase a firearm from arms dealer Sharukh Khan (29). Police seized two country-made pistols and three cartridges, he said. The SP said Khan has criminal antecedents and a case has already been lodged against him. He said a police investigation is underway to find out the source of the arms. A case under sections of the Arms Act has been lodged, he added.

Four girls drown in Yamuna river in Agra

AGRA (UP): Four teenage girls drowned while bathing in the Yamuna river near Nagla Nathu village here on Tuesday, officials said. According to police, six girls had entered the river around 10 am for a bath and soon started drowning. Locals managed to rescue two of them, while four drowned. Their bodies were fished out by locals later. The deceased have been identified as Divya (14), Sandhya (12), Shivani (17), and Naina (14). The two rescued girls - Sonam and Muskan - have been admitted to a nearby hospital. Assam flood scene remains critical; Modi calls up CM to enquire about situation

PTI, GUWAHATI: The flood situation in Assam continued to be critical on Tuesday with over 5.35 lakh people affected in over 20 districts while the toll remained unchanged at 11.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi took stock of the flood situation from Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma, assuring him of full support from the central government.

Sarma visited Cachar district, which is among the worst-hit, during the day, while the meteorological department issued a forecast of more rain in several parts of the city.

BJP president JP Nadda also expressed concern over the situation in most parts of North East and urged the people in the affected areas to take precautions and follow the advisories from local authorities.

Briefing Modi over the phone, Sarma informed him how continuous rainfall in Assam and adjoining states has led to flooding and impacted the people.

ARUNACHAL FLOOD TOLL RISES TO 11, 938 AFFECTED IN 23 DISTRICTS

PTI, ITANAGAR: The death toll in floods and landslides triggered by relentless rain in Arunachal Pradesh has increased to 11 as a labourer died in a wall collapse incident in Anjaw district, officials said on Tuesday. According to a State Emergency Operation Centre (SEOC) statement, while 38-year-old Bhaben Murmu died when a wall collapsed during a landslide on June 1, three GREF workers were injured in the incident.

A total of 938 people are now affected by floods in 156 villages in 23 districts, it said.

Lower Subansiri district reported significant damage, including the destruction of 114 kutcha houses, 45 pucca houses, and nine huts. The district has also seen serious infrastructure losses, including the damage of 51 roads, 17 power lines, 23 water supply lines and two schools, officials said.

Rajasthan govt employee arrested for spying for Pak

PTI, JAIPUR: A Rajasthan government employee who was earlier detained on suspicion of espionage for Pakistan has now been arrested, the police said on Tuesday. Shakur Khan, an Assistant Administrative Officer (AAO) posted at the Jaisalmer employment office had allegedly been passing sensitive, strategic information to Pakistan, they said. The government employee had been under surveillance for suspicious activities over an extended period.

During monitoring, agencies discovered that he was in regular contact with individuals linked to the Pakistan High Commission, particularly Ahsan-ur-Rahim alias Danish and Sohail Qamar, Inspector General (CID-Security) Vishnu Kant Gupta said. "Khan was taken into custody for questioning a few days ago and was interrogated extensively at the central interrogation facility in Jaipur by multiple intelligence agencies," Gupta said in a statement. He further shared that Khan had obtained Pakistani visas on several occasions and travelled to Pakistan, allegedly with the assistance of Danish. Investigations revealed that during his visits, Khan came in contact with agents of Pakistan's spy agency ISI.

He has also been accused of collecting sensitive information upon return to India and transmitting it to Pakistani handlers through platforms such as WhatsApp.

Gupta noted that the case constitutes a serious security breach under the Official Secrets Act, 1923. "A case has been registered, and Khan has been arrested under relevant sections of the Act," he said.

2 medics fined for ragging MBBS student

PTI, BERRHAMPUR (ODISHA): Two house surgeons of Odisha government-run-MKCG Medical College and Hospital here have been imposed a fine of Rs 25,000 each for allegedly ragging a fourth-year MBBS student of the health institute. The anti-ragging committee of the college has taken this decision in its meeting held on Monday, officials said.

"We have received a complaint from the anti-ragging cell about the ragging of a fourth-year MBBS student by the house surgeons on May 12. Based on the complaints, the anti-ragging committee meeting was held to discuss the complaint," said MKCG Medical College Principal Suchitra Dash.

After a thorough discussion, the committee has decided to impose a fine of Rs 25,000 each on the two house surgeons involved in the incident, she said.

The house surgeons have been fined for their misconduct on the ground of violation of decency and morale through ragging, with the junior student.

Medical representatives banned from meeting doctors in central govt hospitals

PTI, NEW DELHI: Medical representatives have been prohibited from meeting doctors in central government hospitals to safeguard patients' interests and maintain ethical standards. The Directorate General of Health Services (DGHS) has instructed all central government-run hospitals not to permit medical representatives in the hospital premises.

"This is in reference to the earlier instructions regarding not permitting entry of Medical Representative in hospital premises. In this regard it is once again instructed that the medical representatives should not be permitted in the hospital premises. The head of the institutions shall give necessary strict directions in the matter to all officials," an order issued on May 28 stated.

The order stated that medical representatives may be requested to share recent advances regarding any treatment, investigation or procedure by email or other digital media.

"It is requested to take necessary action in the matter and action taken report may be furnished to this directorate," the directive said.

"The move is aimed at preventing medical representatives from unduly influencing doctors inside hospital complexes into prescribing medicines promoted by their companies," an official source said.
