MAPUSA: PVC Parra won the penalty shoot-out defeating ABC Arambol by 7-6 margin to move into the quarter-finals of 24th Vagator Soccer tournament played at Vagator Parish Youth Sports Club ground, on Saturday.

VAGATOR SOCCER

In the 15th minute, Anthony Lobo delivered a cross from the right flank, finding Jason Fernandes in the penalty box, but his effort struck the goalpost.

Six minutes later, PVC Parra custodian Daves Har-malkar pulled off a vital save to deny Arun Naik from finding the back of the net.

On crossing ends, a few minutes into the second half, ABC Arambol were awarded a free-kick, where Anthony Lobo delivered it to Vivek Kanulkar, whose header sailed over the crossbar.

ABC Arambol continued their relentless search for the opener where in the 52nd minute, Reniel D'Mello threaded a through pass to Cyprian Rodrigues, whose shot found the side netting.

With the match ending in a goalless draw the penalty shoot-out was enforced where PVC Parra proved to be the better shooters.

The man-of-the-match was awarded to Daves Harmalkar of PVC Association by Uday Lingudkar and Richard D'Souza.

RAIA: Sporting Club of Davorlim booked their spot in the semi-finals of Benaulim Panchayat Cup with a narrow yet thrilling 1-0 win over CAC Cansaulim, in a pulsating quarter-final encounter played at the St John the Baptist ground, Benaulim, on Saturday.

Right from kick-off, SC Davorlim looked the sharper outfit, with midfield maestros Ajay Raj and William Niasso orchestrating play with flair and authority. Despite several promising chances, they were repeatedly denied by CAC Cansaulim's alert goal-keeper Jonito, keeping the first half goalless.

The tempo shifted after the break, with CAC Cansaulim enjoying better possession through Aron and Caddy's sleek passing game. But their frontline lacked finishing finesse.

Then came the moment of magic - Prince connected a surprising header that caught the CAC Cansaulim goal-keeper flat-footed, handing SC Davorlim the lead in the 46th minute.

CAC Cansaulim responded with urgency, but SC Davorlim's rock-solid backline, marshalled by Sanju Trikonni, stood firm to seal a hard-fought victory.

India must give Gill a crack at Test captaincy for a long period of time, says Ponting

PTI, NEW DELHI: India have taken the right decision by handing the reins of the Test team to Shubman Gill and now the youngster must given a long rope to prove his credentials, says Ricky Ponting, who is also confident that India can handle the ongoing transition phase better than other coun- tries. "I actually think it's the right move," Ponting told The ICC Review.
