Russia continues drone, missile attack on Ukraine; 3 killed, 13 injured

AP, KYIV: Russia attacked two Ukrainian cities with waves of drones and missiles early Tuesday, killing three people and wounding at least 13 in what President Volodymyr Zelenskyy called "one of the biggest" strikes in the 3-year-old war.

The attack struck Kyiv and the southern port city of Odesa. In an online statement, Zelenskyy said that Moscow's forces fired over 315 drones, most of them Shaheds, and seven missiles overnight.

"Russian missile and Shahed strikes are louder than the efforts of the United States and others around the world to force Russia into peace," Zelenskyy wrote, urging "concrete action" from the US and Europe in response to the attack.

A maternity hospital and residential buildings in the southern port of Odesa were damaged in the attack, regional head Oleh Kiper said. Two people were killed and nine injured, according to the regional prosecutor's office.

Another person was killed in Kyiv's Obolonskyi district, regional head Tymur Tkachenko wrote on Telegram.

"Russian strikes are once again hitting not military targets but the lives of ordinary people. This once again shows the true nature of what we are dealing with," he said.

Explosions and the buzzing of drones were heard around the city for hours.

Attacks continue despite talks but POWs swapped

The fresh attacks came a day after Moscow launched almost 500 drones at Ukraine in the biggest overnight drone bombardment of the war.

Ukrainian and Western officials have been anticipating Moscow's response to Kyiv's audacious June 1 drone attack on distant Russian air bases.

Russia has been launching a record number of drones and missiles in recent days, despite both sides trading memoranda at direct peace talks in Istanbul on June 2 that set out conditions for a potential ceasefire.

Businessman, two children killed in Delhi's Dwarka apartment fire

PTI, NEW DELHI: Three members of a family, including two children, were killed after they jumped from a balcony to escape a massive fire that broke out in their eighth and ninth-floor duplex flat in Delhi's Dwarka area on Tuesday morning, police said.

The fire started from a temple inside the house located on the eighth floor of the building and quickly spread through PVC panels, a senior police official said.

The deceased were identified as Yash Yadav (41), his daughter Ashima (12), and his nephew Shivam Yadav (11). The family lived in a duplex on the top two floors of the building. Yadav, who had moved to Delhi with his family 10 years ago, was originally from Etah in Uttar Pradesh.

The official said Yadav's sister, her children, and his sister-in-law had gathered at his flat in Dwarka's Shabad Apartment in Sector 13 after attending a religious event (Bhagwat Katha). There were 12 people in the house at the time of the incident.

When the fire broke out around 9:30 am, all members of the family tried to escape by using the stairs to reach the ninth floor. However, Ashima and Shivam got trapped, and Yash returned to save them, police said. They took shelter on the eighth-floor balcony, believing it would be safer than staying inside, as the stairs were also engulfed in flames.

21 fake priests arrested for extorting devotees in Varanasi

PTI, VARANASI: As many as 21 individuals posing as priests at the Kashi Vishwanath Temple were arrested for allegedly extorting money from devotees under the pretext of facilitating temple rituals, a senior police official said on Tuesday.

Several complaints were made over the past several days about unauthorised individuals taking money and misbehaving with visitors in the name of arranging darshan and puja at the temple, Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP) Dashashwamedh Atul Anjan Tripathi said.

Acting on these complaints, a joint team of the Dashashwamedh and Chowk police stations was formed, Tripathi added.

Taiwan charges four with spying for China

AFP, TAIPEI: Taiwanese prosecutors charged on Tuesday four people, including a former staffer in President Lai Ching-te's office, for violating national security after they allegedly spied for China.

The four defendants were among five people expelled from Lai's ruling Democratic Progressive Party (DPP) -- which advocates for Taiwan's sovereignty -- last month for suspected espionage.

The fifth person is still under investigation, a prosecutor told AFP.

China claims democratic self-ruled Taiwan is part of its territory and has threatened to use force to annex it. Taipei accuses Beijing of using espionage and infiltration to weaken its defenses.

The four people have been charged with violating the Classified National Security Information Protection Act and National Security Act after they allegedly shared state secrets with China, the Taipei District Prosecutors Office said in a statement.

Other alleged offences include money laundering. The espionage happened over a "prolonged time", included the sharing of "important and sensitive diplomatic information" and caused "significant harm to national security", prosecutors said.

Prosecutors are seeking prison sentences ranging from five to more than 18 years, and the confiscation of more than NT$8.3 million (US$277,000) in illicit gains.

Delhi HC to hear plea on sexual crimes against animals in July

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Delhi High Court would in July hear a plea to prosecute those involved in sexual crimes against animals.

A bench of Chief Justice Devendra Kumar Upadhyaya and Justice Tushar Rao Gedela on May 28 posted the matter on July 16 to enable the petitioner to bring more facts on record.

The Federation of Indian Animal Protection Organisations (FIAPO) in its PIL highlighted the "complete repeal" of Section 377 (unnatural sexual offences) of IPC under the newly-enacted Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS).

While Section 377 of the IPC was rightly read down by the Supreme Court in the 2018 Navtej Singh Johar judgment to decriminalise consensual same-sex relationships, its complete deletion from BNS inadvertently decriminalised sexual violence against animals, leaving them unprotected by law, it argued.

The PIL also referred to an incident in Coimbatore, where a construction worker was found sexually abusing a dog.
