Man charred to death fighting forest fire in J-K's Rajouri

RAJOURI/JAMMU: A 68-year-old man was burnt to death while trying to control a forest fire in Rajouri district of Jammu and Kashmir, officials said on Wednesday. Abdul Aziz, a retired government teacher hailing from Panda Khatar village of Daloyte panchayat, voluntarily joined a team of forest officials to extinguish fire in Garn forest in Kalakote sub-division on Tuesday, the officials said. While the forest fire was controlled to a large extent by late evening, Aziz went deep to oversee the situation when he found himself trapped with winds igniting the fire again, they said. They said despite efforts, he could not be saved and died on the spot. His charred body was later retrieved and handed over to his family for last rites after completion of legal formalities, the officials said.

Case against cop for disproportionate assets of Rs 3.4 crore

THANE: A case has been registered against a police officer in Maharashtra's Navi Mumbai for allegedly acquiring disproportionate assets of Rs 3.48 crore, officials said on Wednesday. The Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) conducted an inquiry into the finances of the accused from December 2013 to October 2024. It was found he acquired assets of Rs 3,48,40,279, which were allegedly 297 per cent more than his legitimate sources of income for the period, an official from Ulwe police station said. A case was registered against the accused on Monday under provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act, he said.

Gujarat police to use AI-powered software to manage Rath Yatra crowd

AHMEDABAD: The Gujarat police will deploy an Artificial Intelligence-based surveillance system with drones to prevent a stampede-like situation during the main Rath Yatra procession in Ahmedabad on June 27, an official said. The move comes as a massive crowd of devotees is expected to attend the event. Taking a cue from recent incidents involving mass gatherings, including the one in Bengaluru, the Ahmedabad crime branch will deploy an AI-powered visual analytics software which will alert police in advance about crowding patterns, Assistant Commissioner of Police Bharat Patel said on Tuesday.

Rape-murder of 9-year-old girl: Delhi Police arrests 28-year-old man

NEW DELHI: Days after alleged rape and murder of a nine-year-old girl in northeast Delhi's Dayalpur area, a 28-year-old man was arrested on Tuesday after an encounter with police, an official said. The accused, a resident of Nehru Vihar in Dayalpur, was arrested near Hapur in Uttar Pradesh, the official said, adding that he tried to escape during which he attacked a police constable with a hidden blade before being shot in the leg by police. "He was being transported to Delhi when he requested the police team to attend nature's call near Jheel Park in Welcome area of Delhi," said the officer.

UP: 2 cops suspended in Kanpur for demanding bribe

KANPUR (UP): Two policemen were suspended here on Tuesday for allegedly abetting the suicide of a 40-year-old man by torturing him and demanding a bribe of Rs 50,000 to avoid action against him, officials said. Police said the man has been identified as Jeet Kumar alias Jeetu, a native of Kotra in Sajeti area, worked at a private firm in Surat, Gujarat. On Monday, he had gone to his in-laws' home in Akbarpur, Kanpur Dehat, to bring back his wife who had left the house following a domestic dispute. However, his father-in-law, a village head, lodged a complaint against him at the Kotra police post.

Boy missing since 2015 from Noida traced in Haryana

NOIDA: A boy who went missing from Noida nearly a decade ago was traced to Haryana and reunited with his family on Tuesday after police identified him by his old injury marks, officials said. The boy, who was seven when he went missing in 2015 from Gejha village in the Phase-2 area, is now around 17 years old, a Central Noida police officer said. A case of kidnapping was registered under Indian Penal Code Section 363 (punishment for kidnapping) on November 6, 2015, but despite sustained efforts over the years, no leads emerged and the final report was submitted in December 2022, police said.

India raises incident of 'ill-treatment' of Indian at Newark airport with US

PTI, NEW DELHI: India has raised with the US an incident of an Indian man being handcuffed and allegedly treated like a criminal at the Newark Airport, official sources said on Wednesday. The Indian Consulate in New York has ascertained that the man hailing from Haryana had entered the US illegally without a valid visa and was being deported back to India as per a court order, they said. The Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) raised the matter with the US embassy in New Delhi, the sources said. Videos of the Indian youth being pinned to the ground by US authorities at the Newark airport have gone viral. The Indian embassy in Washington DC and the Indian Consulate in New York have also been in touch with the US authorities to ascertain the details in the case, the sources said. Our Consulate in New York has ascertained that the individual who belongs to Haryana had entered the United States illegally without a valid visa and was being deported back to India as per a court order, they said. During his transit in Newark, on finding his behaviour not conducive for travel, he was restrained and admitted to a medical facility, they said. Once he is fit to travel, the individual will be deported to India, the sources said. Our Consulate in New York continues to remain engaged with the US authorities on this matter, they added. The sources said earlier, "We have so far not received any details about the incident or the circumstances under which he was restrained, the flight he had to board or boarded and his final destination". The incident of the Indian man, being "handcuffed and allegedly treated like a criminal" was filmed by an Indian-American, Kunal Jain, who said he felt "helpless and heart-broken".

Manipur protests: Meitei outfit member held for firing at security personnel, 19 detained

PTI, IMPHAL: A member of the Meitei outfit Arambai Tenggol was apprehended for allegedly firing at security personnel during the recent protests in Manipur over the arrests of a leader of the organisation and four others, police said on Wednesday.

Nineteen others were also detained for their alleged involvement in violence during demonstrations in Imphal, a senior officer said.

The Arambai Tenggol member was arrested on Tuesday as he was accused of firing at security personnel when they were trying to clear a roadblock in Tera Sapam area in Imphal West district on June 9, the officer said.

"The assailant, an Arambai Tenggol cadre, namely Raj @Boinao Pangeijam (39), was arrested by Manipur Police along with the weapon of offence (pistol)," the police said, adding that

Manipur Police handed youth brooms and shovels to clear the very roadblocks, burnt tyres, and concrete debris they or others had created during the recent protests he was produced before a magistrate and has been remanded to police custody for eight days.

"Protesters, belonging to Arambai Tenggol, attacked security forces while they were trying to clear the roadblock at Tera Sapam, in Imphal West district. One of the protesters opened fire on the troops there and fled the spot," the officer said.

The police also detained 19 people for their involvement in "street violence in Imphal East district", he said. "They were found blocking roads, harassing commuters and creating public disturbances, mostly in inebriated conditions, and their actions caused inconvenience to the law-abiding citizens and disrupted public order," the officer said.

Manipur has been witnessing protests as demonstrators defied prohibitory orders and clashed with security forces across several districts of Imphal valley, demanding the unconditional release of arrested Arambai Tenggol leader Kanan Singh and four others.

Axiom-4 mission put off as SpaceX detects leak in Falcon-9

PTI, NEW DELHI: The Axiom-4 mission, which was scheduled to carry Indian astronaut Shubhanshu Shukla and three others to the International Space Station on Tuesday, was put off again to fix a leak in the SpaceX's Falcon-9 rocket.

SpaceX announced that it was "standing down" from the Falcon-9 launch to allow time for repairs after a post-static inspection of the rocket's boosters identified a liquid oxygen leak.

"Once complete and pending Range availability, we will share a new launch date," SpaceX said in an X post.

ISRO Chairman V

Narayanan said the liquid oxygen leak was detected in the propulsion bay during a seven-second hot test on the launch pad. The hot test was to validate the performance of the booster stage of Falcon-9 launch vehicle.

"The ISRO team discussed with experts at Axiom and SpaceX and it was decided that the leak would be fixed and necessary validation tests conducted before clearing for the launch," Narayanan said.

Hence, the Axiom-4 launch slated on June 11, 2025 to send the first Indian Gaganyatri to the International Space Station stands postponed, the
