Guardian Angel SC face SC Davorlim in final

Team Herald
sports@herald-goa.com

RAIA: Guardian Angel Sports Club edged past United Club of Nerul 5-4 via tie-breaker to move into the final of Benaulum Panchayat Cup at St John the Baptist ground, Benaulum, on Friday.

Certainly, the most exciting match of the tournament so far, the game was packed with intensity, determination and fierce commitment from both sides. The first half saw end-to-end action but no goals, as defences stood strong under pressure. UC Nerul broke the deadlock early in the second half when Aniket Naik calmly slotted home a penalty after a handball in the box. That only ignited Guardian Angel SC's fighting spirit, and they roared back with a 45th-minute equaliser through Cyril Dias.

With the score tied 1-1 at full time, the match went to penalties where Guardian Angel SC's composure shone through as Cyril Dias saved two penalties. They now face Sporting Club of Davorlim in Sunday's high-voltage final.

10 years of talent, training & triumphs: RFYC pioneers grassroots football

Team Herald
sports@herald-goa.com

PANJIM: Over the past 10 years, Reliance Foundation Young Champs (RFYC) has redefined grassroots football in India with a transformative, child-centric approach. Rooted in the philosophy of "Child First, Player Second," RFYC emphasises holistic development, nurturing not just athletes but responsible, resilient individuals.

Awarded the prestigious Elite 5-Star status by the All India Football Federation (AIFF) under its revamped Academy Accreditation Programme, the RFYC is widely regarded as India's top football academy. Its unique curriculum seamlessly integrates top-tier football training with academics, nutrition, mental wellness and life skills education. Located in Navi Mumbai, the RFYC's world-class residential facility regularly hosts marquee youth tournaments like the Reliance Foundation Youth Sports (RFYS), Reliance Foundation Development League (RFDL) and the Premier first to address age fraud in League Next Gen Cup - offering young players' unmatched exposure to elite competition. The academy also leads the way in using AI-powered scouting and performance analysis to identify and elevate talent. The RFYC is one of the Indian football, being part of the pioneering Stay Your Age Cup in 2024 alongside Bengaluru FC, FC Goa, Dempo SC, FC Madras and Mizoram Football Association. The academy's impact is evident through its 40 alumni now thriving in the Indian Super League and I-League, including promising names - Mohammed Sanan (Jamshedpur FC), Nathan Rodrigues (Mumbai City FC), Huidrom Thoi Singh (NorthEast United FC), Alan Saji (FC Goa) - proof of RFYC's lasting legacy in shaping Indian football's future.

St Sebastian crowned Coppa Goa 2025 champions in UAE

sports@herald-goa.com

RAIA: St Sebastian, Mar-na-Siolim, emerged champions in the Coppa Goa 2025 all-Goa football tournament following a tense tie-breaker win against FC Curtorim in the grand final played in the United Arab Emirates, recently.

The tournament saw participation from 12 top teams from across the UAE -- FC Curtorim, Vanxim Divar, Vasco FC Abu Dhabi, Panth Boys Aldona, St Sebastian Marna-Siolim, Verna FC, OLM Sirlim SC, Salcate Boys FC, Friends Vaddem, Dubai Goans, Nagao Unidos FC and Emirates Navelim.

The tournament was played in league-cum-knockout format. In the first semi-final, St Sebastian edged out OLM Sirlim SC with a narrow 1-0 win. In the second semi-final, FC Curtorim overcame Dubai Goans 5-4 in a thrilling penalty shootout.

In the plate cup final, Emirates Navelim pipped Verna FC 1-0. Meanwhile, in the hard-line match for the third place, Dubai Goans lost to OLM Sirlim SC 4-5 on penalties. The final featured an intense contest between St Sebastian and FC Curtorim. Both sides played an attacking football and fought hard until the final whistle, with neither able to break the deadlock in the regular time. The match went to a tie-breaker, where St Sebastian held their nerve to clinch the championship.

TO HOLD FOOTBALL CLINIC AT MARGAO

PANJIM: On the occasion of the 10th anniversary of Reliance Foundation Young Champs (RFYC), the football academy will host football clinic on June 16, at the Chowgule ground, Margao, from 3 pm. With some of RFYC notable alumni who are currently featuring in the ISL and I-League for some of the biggest football clubs in the country would attend the clinic. The event will involve the alumni Felixson Fernandes (Bengaluru FC) and the academy head scout Steve Charles conducting football activities with the local talents and engaging with an encouraging conversation about professional football standards.
