PTI, NEW DELHI: In a jibe at Congress leader Shashi Tharoor, party chief Mallikarjun Kharge on Wednesday said his party believes in "country first" mantra but for some it is "Modi first and country later".

Soon after Kharge's remarks at a press conference here, Tharoor put out a cryptic post on X in which there was an image of a bird with the caption -- "Don't ask permission to fly. The wings are yours. And the sky belongs to no one."

Asked about Tharoor's article on Operation Sindoor outreach in which he praised

Congress President Mallikarjun Kharge addresses a press conference, in New Delhi

CHANGE OF NAME

I, Ramaa Amey Palekar R/o, H.No. 210/B-1, Preeti Apts, Vasudha Hsg. Colony, Alto St. Cruz Tiswadi North Goa has changed my name from Ramaa Ameya Palekar to Ramaa Amey Palekar. Hereafter in all my Dealings and Documents, I will be Known by the name Ramaa Amey Palekar.

"But I want to say that the people of the opposition together said they are with the Army that is fighting (during Operation Sindoor)... We (the Congress) said the country is paramount and we will work together (with the government). We said 'country first, party later'. Some people say 'Modi first, country later'. What can we do about that," he said.

On another question related to Tharoor's comments, Kharge said, "Whoever knows how to write, will write it, we do not want to think about that. Our target is to maintain unity in the country, to ensure the security of the country. We will keep fighting for the country, there is no need to pay attention to anyone's words."

Pressed further on the Thiruvananthapuram MP's comments, Kharge said Tharoor is speaking according to his will but "we do not want to keep harping on it as we are more concerned about how to save the country".

Tharoor, in an article published in on Monday, said Modi's energy, dynamism and willingness to engage remained a "prime asset" for India on the global stage but deserved greater backing.

His remarks were seen as likely to irk his Congress party and widen cracks in his ties with its leadership.
