Minor boy pushes teen to death from Mumbai building

MUMBAI: Police have registered a murder case against a minor boy after he allegedly pushed to death a 15-year-old girl from the terrace of a building in Mumbai and tried to pass it off as a suicide, an official said. The 16-year-old accused and the victim were friends. The girl was a student of an international school and resided with her mother in Mulund area. On June 24, the girl arrived at a housing society in Bhandup (West) area to meet the boy and discussed her academic stress with him, the Bhandup police official said on Tuesday. The boy then took her atop a water tank on the terrace of the building's D-wing. While they were chatting, their conversation turned into a heated argument about dating, the official said.

Medical college student beaten up by seniors, video goes viral BHOPAL: A case has been registered here after a video showing some students of a private medical college here thrashing a junior student went viral on social media, police said on Wednesday. The incident took place on Monday evening, said Nishatpura police station in-charge Rupesh Dubey, adding that no arrest has been made yet. The complainant, a third year student of People's Medical College, was allegedly beaten up by Paras Jain and two others after Jain accused the complainant of sending objectionable messages to his family, the official said. While a First Information Report (FIR) was registered under relevant sections of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita for assault, the accused also filed a counter-complaint of assault against the victim, he said.

Bengaluru: Infosys employee held for 'filming' woman in office washroom

BENGALURU: A 30-year-old Infosys employee was arrested on Wednesday for allegedly "filming" a female colleague inside the women's washroom at the company's Electronic City campus, police said. The accused, identified as Swapnil Nagesh Mali, a Senior Associate Consultant from Sangli, Maharashtra, was caught by HR personnel and handed over to the police. There was no immediate response from Infosys on the incident. According to police, the incident occurred on Monday morning when the woman noticed a suspicious reflection and movement from an adjacent cubicle while using the washroom.

Tripura govt transfers Gomati, Dhalai DMs

AGARTALA: The Tripura government has transferred the district magistrates of Gomati and Dhalai, an official notification said. Kerala: Elephant calf found dead at shelter PATHANAMTHITTA: A five-year-old elephant calf, a popular attraction at the Konni jumbo training centre, was found dead in its enclosure on Wednesday morning, forest department sources said. The calf, named Kochayappan, was reportedly healthy until Tuesday and had been cooperating well with his routine training, they added. There were no known health issues, and the cause of death will be confirmed only after a post-mortem examination, sources further said. Kochayappan's playful nature and adorable mannerisms had made him a favourite, especially among children visiting the shelter.

Siddaramaiah says he will be Karnataka CM for 5 years

PTI, CHIKKABALLAPURA: Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah on Wednesday asserted that he will be in office for a full five-year term.

He said that the Congress party was united and the party's government will be in power 'solid as a rock' for five years.

'Yes, I will be. Why do you have the doubts?' Siddaramaiah said in response to a question by reporters whether he will be the CM for five years.

There has been speculation within political circles, especially within the ruling Congress, for some time now about the Chief Minister change later this year, citing power-sharing agreement involving Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar.

However, Shivakumar on Tuesday said there is no

discussion on leadership change and stressed on strengthening the hands of CM Siddaramaiah and the party's government in the state.

Responding to a question on claims by the BJP and JD(S) leaders that the CM will be replaced, Siddaramaiah shot back, 'Are they our high command?'

'R Ashoka (Leader of Opposition in the Assembly) is a BJP man. B

Y Vijayendra (state BJP President) is a BJP man. Chalavadi Narayanaswamy (Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Council) is a BJP man. Will you write if they say such things? Should you verify or not?' he asked.

Alleging the BJP of spreading lies about the stability of the government, Siddaramaiah said that the Congress party was united and the government will be in power 'solid as a rock' for five years. 'No one believes in the BJP. They only lie. They are experts in lying. They don't know how to speak the truth. So, whether they believe it or not, we don't know. We are all together (in Congress). As I have said in Mysuru recently, we will be in power for five years. Our government will be as solid as a rock. BJP people are daydreaming,' he said.

WHAT OPTION I HAVE? HAVE TO STAND BY HIM, SAYS SHIVAKUMAR ON SIDDARAMAIAH'S STATEMENT

PTI, BENGALURU/CHIKKABALLAPURA: With Siddaramaiah asserting that he will be the Chief Minister of Karnataka for a full five-year term, Deputy CM D K Shivakumar, who is an aspirant for the post, on Wednesday said he has no objection and that he will stand by and support the former. Indicating that he had no option, he said, he will fulfill the directions of the Congress high command. 'What option I have? I have to stand by him, support him (Siddaramaiah). I don't have any objection to it. Whatever the party high command tells and whatever it desires, it will be fulfilled,' Shivakumar told reporters here in response to a question about the CM's statement.

Accusing the BJP of doing nothing while in power, he asked, what evidence have they left to say that they have worked for the development of the state in sectors such as irrigation, rural development, public works, education, and health?

Security forces arrest four militants

PTI, IMPHAL: Security forces arrested four militants including a top leader of a proscribed outfit from Imphal West and East district, police said on Wednesday.

Namgaklung Kamei @ November (42), a self-styled deputy chief of Zeliangrong United Front (J), a faction of ZUF underground outfit, was arrested from the vicinity of Kekrupat in Imphal West district on Tuesday. One 9mm pistol along with a magazine was recovered from his possession, they said.

One active cadre of KYKL (SOREPA) was arrested from Andro Khuman in Imphal East district on Tuesday.

Security forces arrested one active cadre of KCP (PWG) from Khurai Chaithabi Leirak in Imphal East district.

Kolkata gangrape: Accused Monojit had consensual sex with survivor, claims counsel

WB BAR COUNCIL EXPELS GANG RAPE ACCUSED MONOJIT MISHRA

PTI, KOLKATA: The Bar Council of West Bengal on Wednesday decided to expel Monojit Mishra, the prime accused in the gang rape case, from its membership and struck off his name from its rolls. The state bar council, in a special general meeting, decided to strike off Mishra's name from its rolls of advocates in view of the allegation of the heinous crime against him, its chairman Ashok Deb told reporters here. "We are all ashamed of the barbarous crime alleged to have been committed by him," he said. Deb said that the state bar council will also inform the Bar Council of India of its decision to expel Mishra from its rolls. The South Calcutta Law College had on Tuesday terminated the services of the prime accused and expelled two other students arrested in connection with the alleged gang rape of a 24-year-old first-year student on the campus.

My client has done nothing wrong," Ganguly said.

Sources at the Alipore court, which heard the remand prayer of Mishra and the two co-accused, Zaib Ahmed and Pramit Mukherjee, on Tuesday, however, told PTI that the defence counsel made no such submissions before the judge.

The court extended the police remand of all three prime accused in the case till July 8 and that of the arrested security guard, Pinaki Bandyopadhyay, till July 4.

"The defence did not even pray for the bail application of the accused. On the contrary, they offered total cooperation with the investigators," the court's chief police prosecutor, Sourin Ghoshal, said. "The only two submissions the defence counsel made before the judge were a prayer to remain present with his clients during police interrogation and a plea to visit the crime scene in police presence. While the judge rejected the second prayer, I am not exactly sure about what he ruled about the first," he added.

No linkages between Covid vaccine and heart-related deaths: Govt

PTI, NEW DELHI: In the wake of Karnataka Chief Minister Siddaramaiah linking heart-related deaths in Hassan district to Covid vaccine, the Union Health Ministry on Wednesday said extensive studies by ICMR and AIIMS have conclusively established no linkages between coronavirus vaccines and sudden deaths.

Siddaramaiah had on Tuesday said 'hasty approval and distribution' of the Covid vaccine to the public could also be a reason for these deaths.

He urged everyone to visit the nearest health centre immediately for a check-up if they have symptoms such as chest pain or difficulty breathing, and not to ignore these signs.

The ministry said the matter of sudden unexplained deaths has been investigated through several agencies in the country and these studies have conclusively established that there is no direct link between COVID-19 vaccination and reports of sudden deaths.

Studies by the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) and National Centre for Disease Control (NCDC) affirm that COVID-19 vaccines in India are safe and effective, with extremely rare instances of serious side effects, it said.

Punjab: Mohali court extends SAD leader Majithia's remand by four days

PTI, CHANDIGARH: A Mohali court on Wednesday extended by four days the vigilance custody remand of Shiromani Akali Dal leader Bikram Singh Majithia, who was arrested in a disproportionate assets (DA) case.

Majithia was produced before the court amid tight security after his seven-day vigilance remand ended on Wednesday.

Speaking to the media after a three-hour hearing, public prosecutor Ferry Sofat said the court extended Majithia's remand by four more days after the Vigilance Bureau (VB) filed an application.

Even the VB office witnessed beefed up security arrangements aside from the Mohali district court complex in Mohali where the politician was produced.
